Youth And Girl Being Sought In Mercer Slayings

Wife, Mother, And Hired Hand Of Everett Wilson, Dairy Farmer Slain

SUSPECTS SOUGHT WORKED ON FARM

BULLETIN

MERCER, Pa., Oct. 8.—(INS)—The car in which Albert William Morrell and pretty Janice Graham drove away from the Everett Wilson farm after the brutal death of three persons was found wrecked today on Hamilton Hill road about one mile west of Sandy Lake.

Police said the vehicle apparently had turned over after crashing into the road embankment. It was believed the occupants were injured.

MERCER, Pa., Oct. 8.—A 20-year-old parolee and a young farm girl were sought by authorities of two states today in connection with the brutal slayings of the wife, the 78-year-old mother and a hired hand of Everett Wilson, wealthy Mercer county dairy farmer.

The victims, whose bodies were found in the house and barn of the 160-acre farm one mile west of Mercer, were.

The Victims

Mrs. Catherine H. Wilson, 78, the mother. The body was found with a shotgun wound in the breast slumped in a wicker rocker in the sumptuous living room

Mrs. Everett Wilson, 45, the wife. Police said she had been gagged and her hands tied behind her back and then strangled by a piece of rope twisted around her neck.

Robert McKay, 61, the hired hand whose body with a shotgun wound in the stomach, was found sprawled at the bottom of the main staircase of the home which the Wilsons have owned since 1804.

Triple Murder

Authorities, who readily declared that the trio were apparently the victims of a triple murder, said they sought William Albert Morrell of Stoneboro, recently paroled from Mercer county jail, and Janice Graham, also 20, of Findlay township.

Pennsylvania and Ohio police who reconstructed the crime believe Wilson's wife was strangled in the barn and that the slayer then killed the older woman, and shot McKay as he rushed down the stairs upon hearing the shots.

A 12-gauge shotgun and empty shells were found on the living room floor.

Employed On Farm

Both Morrell and his companion had been employed on the farm. The pair was last seen about two hours after the crime at the home of Morrell's grandfather, W. S. Myers, in Stoneboro.

An aunt, Mrs. Rollie Myers, said Morrell drove up with the girl in McKay's car and that after they had washed themselves hurriedly drove off again. Authorities believe the pair headed into Ohio.

Wilson was in Canada on a fish-

Declares Greater Aid Must Be Given China To Defeat Japanese

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Sen. Albert B. Chandler (D) Ky., planned to warn the senate in executive session today that Japan may never be defeated unless the United Nations prevent the Nipponese from overrunning China.

"We must supply more aid to China as well as to Gen. MacArthur in the South Pacific," said Chandler. "If Japan overruns China and destroys our air bases, withdrawing her industry to the interior, the war may never end in her defeat."

Second Day's Report

The senate convenes for the second day in extraordinary executive session to hear reports from its five-man committee which visited the world battlefronts. In addition to Chandler, members of the group are: Sens. Russell (D) Ga.; Mead (D) N. Y.; Lodge (R) Mass., and Brewster (R) Maine.

Senators revealed that Russell, Mead and Lodge in the first discussion of the war, said:

1. The United States should obtain foreign bases to protect America in the future. This includes Pacific islands as well as the Iceland area and the area of Dakar, Africa.

2. Outrageous charges are being made to the United States under reverse lend-lease by other nations

New Offensive By Reds Hurls Germans Back

Reinforced Red Army Columns Resume Drive Against Nazis

REDS ADVANCE ON WIDE FRONT

By NATALIA RENE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Oct. 8.—Reinforced Red Army columns today surged ahead under cover of heavy artillery bombardments in a new offensive which hurled back the German invaders along an 1,800-mile front extending from the Leningrad sector to the Caucasus.

Major accomplishments credited to the Soviet troops in the opening phase of this mighty new drive included the capture of Nevel, communications center only 70 miles from the Latvian border; further cracking of the central Dnieper river line by establishing three new bridgeheads across the stream, and seizure of Teman, across the Kerch straits from the Crimea.

Nazis Fight Desperately

The Germans sought desperately to stem the tide of the onrushing Red army, pouring in tanks, planes and infantry all to no avail.

Covered by a strong air umbrella, the Soviet troops smashed across the middle Dnieper river north of Kiev, south of Pereyaslav, and southeast of Kremenchug.

"Our troops are repelling all counter-attacks of the enemy and widening step by step their operational bases," the Soviet communique said.

The German suffered enormous losses in their unsuccessful counter-attacks. One Russian formation south of Pereyaslav wiped out 2,000 Nazis in a single day, and two days of fighting saw another Red army formation annihilate an entire enemy regiment.

Germans Suffer Heavily

Also on the Taman peninsula in the West Caucasus, the Germans suffered heavily. After "violent fighting" Russian tank and infantry forces broke through enemy defenses on the southwestern part of the promontory to capture the town of Taman; they then surged ahead to take Semenyuk.

The Germans were seeking to flee across the narrow Kerch straits, but the Soviet air force reportedly sank a number of troop-laden evacuation boats.

On the far northern front, troops of the Volkhov sector drove 10 miles to capture Kirichy, just below Leningrad, as well as other localities Slightly to the south, Nevel—on the last north-south Russian railway still remaining in German hands—fell to the Soviets.

As the Russians pounded forward from new bridgeheads across the Dnieper, guerillas were aiding them around Kiev, third largest city in Russia. The partisan forces wrecked three trains, demolished bridges, and hampered motor transport in the area.

GERMANS WITHDRAWING

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—The German radio said today that German troops in the Southern Appennines of the center of the Italian front are "slowly withdrawing to the northwest after fighting defensive actions."

CZECH FORCES LAND

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Reuter's News Agency, quoting the Stockholmn paper Svenska Dagbladet today, said Czech forces have landed in Yugoslavia at Ultsini and Budva, south of Cetinje, old capital of Montenegro.

Police Officer Shoots At Man

Suspect In North Hill Area Flees When Asked To Halt, Last Night

POLICE HUNTING GIRL ACCOSTER

City Policeman Ray Showalter at 11:05 o'clock Thursday night fired two revolver shots at a man who refused to stop for questioning at Logan street and Moody avenue. Showalter was one of several officers who patrolled the North Hill last night hopeful of apprehending the man who reportedly has accosted several girls recently.

Showalter with Patrolman Michael Fazzone first noted a man they believed acting suspiciously at Sumner and Highland avenue. Showalter, on foot, trailed the man through several streets. The man reportedly followed an aged woman in Wildwood avenue. However, the man did not know that Showalter was close behind.

The man did not accost the woman. About 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighing about 190 pounds, he zigzagged through streets, after the woman had reached her home and

Wartime Strike Treason, Says Legion Leader

A. F. Of L. Convention Is Thrown Into Turmoil By Atherton's Charges

By JACK VINCENT
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—The 63rd annual convention of the American Federation of Labor was thrown into an uproar today when National Legion Commander Warren Atherton charged it was treason to strike and immediately was told by A.F.L. Chieftain William Green that "there are sinners in the American Legion."

Green also staunchly defended labor's record in the war effort and he was given wild applause when he finished talking. The ovation accorded him was the greatest that has marked any session of the federation in its five days of meeting to date.

The debate between Green and Atherton overshadowed all else.

Atherton, elected new commander of the Legion only two weeks ago, departed from a prepared address to make his charge.

"If it is treason for a soldier at the front to lay down his gun," Atherton said, "it should be treason for any person on the home front to do things that will keep him from getting that gun."

Atherton, bluntly told the 600 labor delegates to the convention that "something is haywire" because of recurring strikes. He charged that there have been 1,855 strikes since the beginning of the year, that it represented a great production loss, that "it isn't hay."

"The general public does not understand how that can be if the heart of every working man is in winning this war. There must be work to cure this haywire situation. It is giving labor a black eye."

Atherton, pleading for an end to strikes, warned that "it's still a long way to Berlin and Tokyo."

Triple Smash In Air Attacks Upon Germany

R. A. F. Fliers Blast Stuttgart, Freidrichshafen, And Munich Last Night

GERMAN BOMBERS ATTACK ENGLAND

By LEO V. DOLAN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Oct. 8.—A smashing blow was delivered by the Royal Air Force last night against Nazi airplane and U-boat production when the Reich cities of Stuttgart, Freidrichshafen and Munich were battered in a gigantic triple assault, the air ministry announced today.

Only seven British aircraft were reported missing in the widespread assaults which included sorties by Mosquito bombers into northwest Germany.

While the heaviest force of four-motored bombers plastered Stuttgart, center of highly specialized engineering works producing airplane engines and Diesel engines for submarines, Lancaster bombers attacked Freidrichshafen and Mosquitos hit Munich, birthplace of Nazidom.

Mines Also Laid

Mines also were laid in enemy-controlled waters.

Clouds prevented full observation of the results of the attack on Stuttgart, the air ministry said.

Stuttgart is the site of the largest railway repair shop in southern Germany and is the rail junction for main lines to Switzerland from central Germany, Berlin and western Germany and has in all eight railway stations.

The R. A. F. assault, the fifth night attack on Germany since last Friday, ended a two-night lull in activity over the continent. Germany had enjoyed a respite since Monday night when the communications and industrial center of Frankfurt was handed its heaviest raid of the war in the wake of a daylight battering by flying fortresses and Liberator bombers of the United States Eighth Air Force.

Coastal observers reported numerous large squadrons put out during the night for the attack on the continent while German aircraft came across the channel to make extensive although feeble assaults on England.

Last Month Was Extremely Dry

Less Than Inch Of Rain Fell During Entire Month, Records Show

With a deficiency of over two inches below the normal reported last month, Lawrence county farmers are beginning to feel the effects of the drouth which has gripped the local district. Only .95 inches of rain fell during September, the records of U. S. Weather Observer B. F. Johnson reveal. Last year the weather for the month was almost normal.

In addition to being extremely dry, the temperature averaged 1.8 degrees below the normal figure.

The mean maximum temperature was 77.3 degrees, the mean minimum, 46.8 degrees, and the mean or average for the month was 62.5 degrees. The highest temperature was 90 degrees, registered on the first and seventh days of the month, while the lowest was 30 degrees on the 26th. There were two days when the temperature was 90 and two when it was 32 degrees or below.

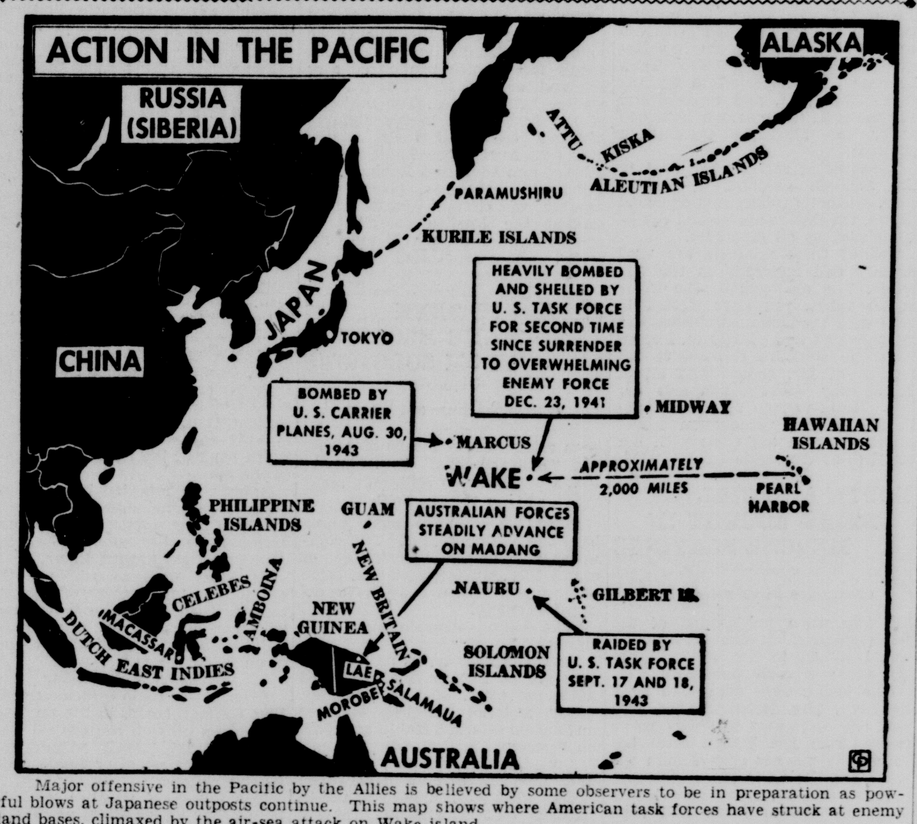

The total precipitation was .95 inches, the greatest in 24 hours being .30 inches on September 6. Days with .01 inches or more were only seven. Days clear were 21, partly cloudy nine.

Last September the precipitation was .09 inches below the normal, while the temperature was .8 degrees over normal.

CHRISTMAS MAIL FOR SOLDIERS FAR BELOW ESTIMATES

Japanese Seek To Make Escape From Solomons

Frantic Efforts Being Made To Evacuate Kolombangara Island

MANY JAPS DIE IN FLIGHT EFFORT

By FRANK ROBERTSON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

Sea Routes Outflanked

Announcement of the Japanese decision to relinquish their positions in that area was contained in a communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The bulletin said the American occupation of Vella Lavella, north of Kolombangara, outflanked all sea routes to the latter island and necessitated the evacuation. Many Japs died in their flight.

"Vila and the southern part of the island apparently has been abandoned, with troops moving toward the northern shore. For the past several nights, evacuation has

Fire Destroys Stacks Of Hay

Shenango township firemen were called to the farm of William Noltz, off the Old Pittsburg road, about 6 o'clock this morning, when several stacks of hay near the barn were found ablaze. Firemen prevented the fire from communicating to the barn, but the hay outside, which was destroyed, entailed a loss of around $100.

Members of the family were at a loss to understand how the fire started, unless someone set the stacks afire.

Bondsman Is Still Awaited

City Treasurer's Office Remains Closed Pending Arrival—Expected Here Today

City officials today marked time pending the anticipated arrival some time today of a representative of the company which bonded C. C. McKibben for $100,000, and who admitted a shortage of at least $26,000 in city funds.

Finance Director Albert Hoyland stated that City Controller S. L. Lockley and Deputy Treasurer Chester McMillen were making an audit of the treasury accounts for the city.

However, the bonding company which will make good the shortage of McKibben, will make its own audit.

No successor to the former city treasurer will be named until the bonding company completes its work.

Sales Tax And Withholding Tax Strongly Opposed

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 8—(INS)—The 63rd annual convention of the American Federation of Labor in Boston adopted a resolution today voicing "unremitting opposition" to a general sales tax and the New Deal's proposal to increase the withholding tax of workers.

Fifth Army Has Pushed 23 Miles North Of Naples

Capture Of Historic City Of Capua Is Announced By Allies

BRITISH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACKS

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, In North Africa, Oct. 8.—In a sweep that carried it 23 miles north of Naples on the ancient highway to Rome, the United States Fifth Army seized the historic city of Capua today.

The troops of Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark breasted the Volturno river on a front extending 16 miles from Capua to the Tyrhenian Sea, breaking down determined German resistance and pushing forward over difficult terrain in the face of a driving downpour.

Fifth Army Advances

Despite the handicaps of unfavorable weather and difficult country, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was able to announce:

"The Fifth Army has continued to move forward in the Volturno river sector and steady progress has been made in the repair of communications.

"In the Termoli area, troops of the (British) Eighth Army have improved their positions and beaten off several enemy tanks and infantry counterattacks."

Heavy rain is still falling in most of the operation areas, which is a factor strongly in favor of Nazi Field Marshal Albert Kesselring's defense forces. The Germans, attempting to stem an Allied assault in force across the Volturno, clung desperately to mountain strongholds and attacked fiercely at every

Radiator Plant Is Commended

Establishment Of War Production Committee Brings Government Messages

WAR MATERIALS PRODUCED HERE

Management and employes of the New Castle plant of the National Radiator Company have been commended by the War Production Board for the establishment of a War Production Committee in the local plant. The board is composed of E. L. Brundage, general plant superintendent, chairman; Clair Hunt, vice-chairman; C. K. Saylor, L. H. Mack, Merle Mitchell, Horace Tressler, Everett Campbell, Floyd Smock, Alfred Pinkerton, C. W Longacre and Joseph Jaworski.

Wires were received from Bruce Catton for Donald Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board, T. K. Quinn, director general War Production Drive Headquarters, and Rear Admiral T. C. Woodward, chief of Industrial Incentives Bureau, U. S. Navy.

The wire received from Admiral is typical of the rest of them. His wire reads:

"Congratulations to your new War Production Committee and best wishes for the success of the Production Drive to which it is dedicated. The equipment which you of National Radiator make for destroyer escort vessels and tank landing ships and the variety of other products you supply for other war purposes are important elements in our victory program. By enlisting his full support and cooperation in order to meet delivery schedules every employee can help substantially to shorten the war."

Hold Rally

The telegrams were read to the employes at a rally held in the plant. E. L. Brundage, plant superintendent introduced E. L. Redden, Manager of Public and Industrial Relations for all the company's plants and operations. Mr. Redden informed the assembled workers of the purpose for electing a committee of five plant employes and five supervisory representatives, to aid in a co-operative movement to expedite shipments of the many war products now being cast in the plant.

It was stated by Mr. Redden "Many workers in this plant and people in the city of New Castle

U. S. Bombers Blast Bremen

Vital U-Boat Center Is Attacked By Flying Fortresses

By LEO V. DOLAN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Bremen, Germany's second ranking port and vital U-boat center, was smashed today by American Flying Fortresses which struck only a few hours after powerful RAF bombers returned from a devastating triple assault upon the Reich.

The Forts, strongly supported by squadrons of American Thunderbolt fighters, hit in force at Bremen in broad daylight. They lashed out heavily at the city, which is outranked only by Hamburg in importance as a German port.

The attack came on the heels of a night blow at Nazi airplane and U-boat production centers at Stuttgart, Friedrichshafen and Munich, carried out by RAF squadrons.

Bremen, which sprawls along both banks of the Weser some 46 miles from the North sea, has a normal population of some 324,000. It is a vital center of shipbuilding and U-boat production and repair. Through Bremen run rail lines linking it with many of the major industrial centers of the Reich.

Oppose Repeal Of Victory Tax

Congress Committee Objects To Relieving Nine Million Of Tax Obligation

COUNTER-PROPOSALS ON TAXES COMING

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—A majority of House ways and means committeemen are opposed today to relieving 9,000,000 American citizens of any income burden through proposed repeal of the Victory tax. Retention of the levy in revised form is considered likely.

This was disclosed as the committee began its fifth day of hearings on the administration's beleagured $10,500,000,000 tax program. One ranking committeeman who declined to be quoted by name said:

"The Treasury Department's program proposes 9,000,000 taxpayers who now pay only the Victory tax pay nothing at all next year. The committee isn't going to do it.

Counter-Proposal

"Work is already being done on a counter-proposal which will revise the levy to remove the complications that it causes in filing returns, but not a single person who now pays the tax will escape it."

This member estimated the revised Victory tax proposal would muster "at least 18 out of the 25 votes on the committee, and possibly more."

The Victory tax enacted by Congress in 1942, raises approximately $2,900,000,000 annually. It imposes a net three per cent levy on all gross income after a $624 exemption.

Under the administration's program the tax would be repealed entirely and the lost revenue would be recovered through increased income tax rates at higher income levels.

Not Clear As Yet

Just how the committee will handle revision was not made clear, but it was understood that the main objective will be simplification of the levy without loss of its effectiveness. One step in this direction has already been taken by the committee and it has reported a bill for immediate adoption by Congress.

The bill would remove the option of claiming the post-war Victory tax credit currently or after the war and make it mandatory that it be claimed currently.

So far as the administration's multi-billion dollar program is concerned its fate will not be determined formally for another 10 days, but its doom is considered certain. Best estimates now are that the substitute program being formulated by the committee will raise not more than $4,500,000,000, with most of the revenue to be collected through increased excise taxes on so-called "luxury" items.

The old king killed the bearer of bad news. He probably knew that such people really enjoy the sensation they create.

think of our production effort as that of making radiators—because of the Company name. While this product is made at two other plants in Johnstown, Pa., and Trenton, N. J., the equipment manufactured here is boilers, condensing sections, Oil-Rators, Manifold Valves, Strainers, special large castings for the machine tool industry and a special casting used in tanks manufactured by The Ford Motor Co.

Government Orders

"Perhaps it is thought that heating boilers are produced for installation in homes. Very few are shipped for this purpose and then only on government approved priority orders. NRC boilers will be found in Army, WAC, Navy, Air Force and Coast Guard training stations and camps from Alaska to Texas. Also, in a host of USO recreation buildings all over the country. In addition, boilers made here have been shipped to other war material manufacturing plants and war workers housing projects.

"NRC workers have contributed to the direct war effort by making Manifold Valves, installed in thousands of ships—such as the new Destroyer Escort and (LST) Tank Landing Ships referred to by Admiral Woodward, and tankers and war material cargo vessels launched under the Maritime Commission program.

"Condensing sections are used in the aviation gasoline, by-product coke, synthetic rubber and chemical plants. Oil-Rators are special equipment used by oil producers.

"All of these products are used directly and indirectly in the war effort. The members of the Committee whom you have elected to help with production problems, our management and yourselves. I know have the spirit to respond to the request of Mr. Nelson and all of us, as war workers, will give our best efforts to step up product deliveries as our "production front" effort to share the fight with our relatives at the battle front."

German planes which flew over England, 15 of them penetrating into the greater London area.

The German craft were over the London area between 8:15 p. m. and 9:30 p. m. They dropped a total of about 30 tons of bombs.

Observers declared that the German assault was entirely devoid of military significance and obviously was designed for propaganda purposes to palliate German morale.

(The German radio claimed that the industrial city of Norwich, in Norfolk northeast of London, also was attacked and that many direct hits were scored on important targets. Large fires were started, the Nazis asserted.)

Although the raids were the most extensive made by the Germans in some time early comparisons between last night's assault and the last heavy raid of May 10, 1941, were regarded as misleading. At that time 450 tons of bombs were dropped by the Germans and nearly 1,500 persons were killed.

The German air action caused the 666th alert of the war to be sounded in London but out of the enemy force which penetrated over England only a few reached the greater London area. The majority of the Nazi craft, mostly fighter-bombers, conducted their attacks over east Anglia, the Thames river estuary and southeast England.

Reliable estimates placed the number of German craft which crossed the English coast at 60 and out of these some 15 were reported to have penetrated the greater London area.

been attempted by means of barges and small warships," Gen. MacArthur's communique said.

Many Barges Sunk

Allied forces, have sunk many large evacuation barges. The communique reported "great loss of enemy life", but conceded that some of the Jap troops may have escaped to safety.

"The enemy's struggle to evacuate continues," the report added.

Nearest strong forces of the Japs now are at Bougainville, some 150 miles northwest of Kolombangara.

Four-motored American bombers meanwhile attacked Kahili airdrome on Bougainville, destroying a number of planes caught on the ground and kindling several fires. The raiders, shot down nine of 30 enemy fighters that sought to intercept them. "All our planes returned," said the communique.

Sink Gunboat

Elsewhere in the Solomons, Allied airmen destroyed or damaged 18 enemy barges along the coast of Choiseul Island, and shot down a medium enemy bomber at Santa Isabel Island. Light naval units sank a small Jap gunboat off Choiseul.

A heavy reconnaissance unit set fire to a 1000-ton enemy cargo ship in the Kavieng area of New Ireland, while other American aircraft destroyed or damaged at least seven barges, three patrol boats and a launch.

Ground activity continued in New Guinea where Australian jungle fighters in the Ramu Valley were reported "pressing after the retreating enemy" dropping back toward the threatened base of Madang.

HIGH SCHOOL BUSINESS EFFICIENCY CLUB MEETS

opportunity against Gen. Sir Bernard Law Montgomery's Eigthh Army in the Adriatic sector.

Beat Back Nazi Attacks

The British forces beat back heaviest Nazi armored and infantry slashes around Termoli and then lunged out to seize high ground north of the port, considerably strengthening their foothold on the east coast.

Kesselring, official quarters disclosed, is now using at least six German divisions against the Allied thrusts. These include the notorious Hermann Goering panzer division, the 26th panzer division, the 29th panzer division, the motorized grenadiers, the first paratroop division, the 16 panzer division and the 15th panzer grenadiers.

The strain on German manpower seemed evident from the fact that a large percentage of non-Germans was found among prisoners recently captured. These included a large number of Czechs, Alsatians, Slovaks and Slovenes.

Latest advices place the Volturno line as running from Capua southeast through San Mariano and Maddaloni, then northeast to Benevento and to Montefalcone and then due north to the Biferno river and Termoli, with scores of towns and villages in the hands of the Fifth Army.

Former Nazi Air Base

Capua, site of a former Nazi air base, lies on the south bank of the Volturno river forming the present German defense line.

Seizure of the most important Volturno keypoint came after a nine-mile advance through mud and rain.

In addition to Capua, the Fifth Army captured three other towns in the Naples area—Cancelloelarnone, Grazzianise and St. Maria De Lafossa—as well as Castel at the mouth of the Volturno river.

Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark's army is said to be holding the entire south bank of the river from Capua to the sea.

Rains were reported heavy in all other operational areas in addition to the Capua sector but the unfavorable weather failed to halt the Allied progress toward Rome.

Advances were scored over the wet terrain under cover of strafing assaults throughout the battle area by American Warhawk and British Kittyhawk fighters which swooped down below the rain clouds.

Germans Withdrawing

(The Berlin radio said meanwhile that German troops in the southern Appenines hills on the central Italian front are "slowly withdrawing to the northwest after fighting defensive actions.")

The inclement weather grounded both heavy and medium bombers of the Allied Air Force.

One force of Allied fighters destroyed 11 Nazi vehicles and a German Mark VI tank in the battle area.

Royal Air Force Spitfires destroyed one Junkers-88 near Termoli on the eastern sector where the Eighth Army pounded steadily forward in the direction of Pescara. Four Messerschmitt 109s were destroyed over the Foggia area.

Heavy Fighting

The Eighth Army engaged the Germans in heavy fighting in the Termoli region after crushing a desperate Nazi armored counterattack.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said that the Eighth Army had improved its positions after beating down several stabs into their ranks by Nazi tanks and infantry.

In announcing the capture of Capua by the Fifth Army headquarters said that this combined American and British force continued to move forward in the Volturno river sector. Steady progress in the repair of damaged communications was reported.

Five Nazi aircraft were reported destroyed in all operations yesterday while four Allied planes were listed as missing.

The center of the Nazi defense line, around Benevento, was kept under heavy fire and posed a third threat to German Field Marshall Albert Kesselring.

Kesselring's initial attempt to crush the Eighth Army's advance up the east coast by switching an armored division from the Naples area failed utterly and the British commander, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, held his ground against the top strength of the German armor.

MOTHER-IN-LAW CHEERS LONG SOUGHT RELIEF!

Had Been "Irregular" for Years!

Have you often despaired of ever finding normal regularity? Then, by all means, read this unsolicited letter:

"For many long years, my mother-in-law had suffered from common constipation. She used to take all kinds of pills and medicines, but got no lasting relief. Upon starting to use KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN, her trouble cleared up. She feels like a new person, she says. She wanted me to tell the world how your product helped her." Mrs. Poline Balis, 734 East 160th Street, Bronx, N. Y.

How do scientists explain the apparent "magic" of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN's relief? Simply thus: ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of "cellulosic" elements — lack of which in sufficient amounts in the diet is a common cause of constipation! These elements help the friendly colonic flora fluff up and lighten the colonic wastes for easy, natural elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN doesn't work by "purging"—or by "sweeping you out." It is a gentle-acting, "regulating" food!

If this is your trouble eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly. Drink plenty of water! See if you don't find the welcome relief you've hoped for! Insist on genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

Deaths of the Day

John Adam Zehner

John Adam Zehner, aged 83, of R. D. 1, New Castle, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Ill for only a few days, he had been in the hospital since Monday.

Mr. Zehner was born in Beaver county, Pa., on October 13, 1859, a son of John Adam Zehner and Eve Emmil Zehner. He was a well known farmer and had spent all his life in this part of the state. Mr. Zehner was a member of Center United Presbyterian church. On November 28, 1861, he married Ida May Stewart who preceded him in death in 1934.

Surviving are the following children, Hiram I. Zehner, of R. D. 1, New Castle, Mrs. Pearl Thayer, of New Castle, Mrs. Ora Parke, of Miami, Fla., Mrs. Helen Bowater, of Ellwood City, Willard F. Zehner, of New Castle; one brother, William Zehner, of R. D. 1, New Castle; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be conducted at the R. L. Boyd funeral home, North Jefferson street, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Rev. B. M. Wallace, pastor of Center United Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment will be in Oak Park cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Fred L. Beck

Fred L. Beck, of Fredonia, Pa., who died Thursday morning, will be buried Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Fredonia.

He leaves his wife, Florence; two sisters, Mrs. C. R. Allen, of New Castle, Mrs. Goe, of Canton, O., and three brothers, George, of Riverside, Calif., Albert, of New Brighton, Pa., and Jennings, of Sharon.

Mr. Beck was born in Moravia, Pa., in 1878.

Mrs. Roberts Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Richard Roberts, 1220½ South Mill street were conducted Thursday afternoon at the Ritchie funeral home, South Mill street, with Rev. Thomas J Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church, in charge.

Pallbearers were James Davis, Griff Phillips, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Steinbrink, F. Samuels and C. Gerneinhart.

DECLARES GREATER AID MUST BE GIVEN CHINA

Extravagant Promises

3. American representatives must consider self-interest more in dealings with foreign nations. The U. S. is not getting full credit for her war effort.

4. Extravagant promises of post-war aid are being made in the name of the United States.

5. America probably faces a hard war both against Germany and Japan, although the senators admitted possibility of the Nazis cracking.

Chandler was "loaded" with information designed to pledge the senators to a demand for more vigorous prosecution of the war against Japan. He declared that lend-lease to China is 1/700th of that to Russia, that MacArthur and Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault, in China, have been denied promised aid, and that MacArthur believes that with 500 bombers he could reach the Philippines.

Need Russia Air Bases

It was reported that Lodge said that highest officers in the South Pacific estimated that one million casualties could be saved in the war against Japan if Russia gave the United States air bases in Siberia.

Chandler told the senate that Gen. MacArthur is keeping a list of names of Japanese officers and enlisted men who have tortured American soldiers, for military trial after the war.

"One instance the general told us about was an American whose abdomen was opened so that Japanese could watch the functioning of vital organs," Chandler said. "In another instance a man was smothered to death in a mound of filth which a Jap soldier refused to remove upon the order of his officer."

"Stop! Police" Showalter shouted.

The man started to run.

Again Showalter commanded him to stop. However, the man fled faster and Showalter blazed away with two shots. At first he thought he had hit the fleeing man, and with other officers searched the section from 11:05 p. m. until 12:30 a. m. The suspect was not found.

"If the man was not the person who has attacked several girls he should have stopped," Chief of Police W. G. McMullen stated today. "The fact that he fled makes us believe that Showalter and Fazzone were on the trail of the person wanted."

The chief made it plain today that whenever an officer commands anyone to stop, they should do so. Police have been trying nightly to apprehend the person, although they had made no public announcement of their plans.

The chief pointed out that while the attacks reported have occurred on the North Hill, the man may not be from that section and he could have shifted his attacks to other sections of the city, hence every night policeman has been trying to effect his capture.

PRISON SENTENCE FOR IMPERSONATING NAVAL PETTY OFFICER

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 8.—(INS)—"Borrowing" $50 from Connie Boswell, New York radio star, and various amounts from Pittsburgh women blazed a path to prison today for Robert H. Halstead, 25, of Fairmont, W. Va., who was charged directly with impersonating a naval petty officer, in a complication of deceptions.

Halstead was arrested several months ago in Pittsburgh wearing naval campaign ribbons and a good conduct medal which he said were earned in Pacific Ocean warfare. His masquerade shood up several weeks, in which he took advantage of sympathetic women friends who were glad to lend him money after hearing his story of foreign battles and heroism. Halstead's borrowing and other indiscretions finally led to an investigation which revealed the masquerade.

Today in federal court, Judge R. M. Gibson sentenced him to two and one-half years in prison.

A minor miracle of the war is that officers and men set their watches together and hours later find them still in agreement.

PLANE ON FERRY HOP OVERSHOOTS FIELD

An army plane being ferried from the west, in making an emerency landing at New Castle airport at 6:45 Thursday evening, after its radio went bad and it got off course, overshot the field in landing, and crashed on the far side of the runway at the field.

The plane is not badly damaged and will be taken to an army air field for repairs, Findley C. Wilson, manager of the field, said today. Members of the crew were unhurt.

MRS. F. H. NORRIS IS EIGHTY YEARS OF AGE

Even though confined to bed due to ill health, the spirit of "wanting to do and help our boys in service" is a song everlastingly sung in the heart of Mrs. F. H. Norris, well known resident of New Castle, who is quietly celebrating her 80th birthday anniversary today at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolford, North street.

Mrs. Norris, better known to her friends as Deborah, keeps constantly busy with her knitting for the local chapter of American Red Cross, having numerous cap-scarves and other knit items to her credit. In addition, Mrs. Norris has acquired new friends in America and abroad. She frequently receives letters from lads overseas who are at present in the thick of the fight. Their grateful messages are promptly and cheerfully answered.

While conditions won't permit any plans for a celebration, friends join in extending Mrs. Norris best wishes.

THIS TEMPTING SALAD'S A ONE-DISH MEAL!

SKY-FLAKE LUNCHEON SALAD
Tomatoes Cucumbers Hard Boiled Eggs Lettuce Sky-Flake Wafers Cheese
Quarter tomatoes, pare and dice cucumbers, slice eggs, add French dressing and arrange on lettuce leaves. Place a thin slice of cheese on Sky-Flake Wafers, put under broiler until cheese is melted, and serve hot with salad. It's no wonder "energy" filled Sky-Flakes make salads, soups, creamed dishes taste better. They're famous for their fresh-baked goodness, flaky texture, tempting flavor. Make a practice of using appetite-whetting Sky-Flakes to give sparkle to wartime meals.

ALLIED CHALLENGE OFF NORWAY

ACCENTED again by the surprise Allied naval attack on German shipping close to Norwegian shores is the extent of the Allies' shift to the offensive on virtually ever one of the global fronts.

The coastal waters entered by the American and British naval units are vital parts of the German supply line to Norway bases, recently become more important because of Sweden's ban on German use of its railways. Tucked away in nearby hideouts are ships of the German Navy, including the powerful Tirpitz.

The Allied ships and planes defied the German fleet, challenged it to come out and fight. Denied that pleasure, the American and British forces contented themselves by sinking a large number of enemy merchant ships.

The British contingent was part of the home fleet accompanied by an American carrier and attack planes. It was quite a distance from home in the inner waterways of Norway. Quite obviously the fleet is no longer concerning itself merely with protective and patrol duty.

The Germans must meet this new threat. They must shift to Norwegian waters quantities of planes and submarines badly needed elsewhere. They may decide to send out their hoarded warships for surface battle. It is even possible that they may give up their northern Norwegian bases as untenable, thus easing pressure upon the northern supply route to Russia.

Hitler no longer picks the place to fight. The intiative has gone to the Allies. The meaning of that, in terms of Allied success, is becoming clearer each succeeding day.

DROP IN EMPLOYERS

Social security statistics covering the old age and survivor insurance tax are beginning to have value in measuring economic as well as social results. Since all employers of one or more, engaged in manufacture, mining and the trades, are subject with their employes to the tax, the statistics covering nearly seven years may be taken as fairly conclusive as to trends and conditions affecting both employer and employe.

For instance, figures just published by the Social Security board shed considerable light on the extent to which small business has suffered through shortages of labor and material and curbs on non-essential products. The figures reveal that in the January-March period this year employers taxed numbered 2,154,000, the lowest level reached in any quarter in the last three years.

The decline began right after the third quarter of 1942, when the total was 2,327,000. The drop of 173,000 in the number of employers represents a decline of nearly 7½ per cent.

Decision to postpone the courtmartial proceedings against Admiral Kimmel and General Short until the end of the war represents a judgment in which the government had little choice, inasmuch as a public trial now could not fail to reveal vital naval and military information to the nation's enemies. Moreover, a postwar verdict on the conduct of these two highest ranking officers at Pearl Harbor, which cost them their commands and wrecked their careers, will be a fairer verdict than would be possible now.

On the personal and professional side, no formal punishment could be sharper than the ending of their service, their relegation to retired status, and their deprivation of all part in the waging of war, for which these two officers were trained. Their case has never been stated. It is probable that a thorough examination of what led up to, and what occurred, at Pearl Harbor will broaden out the area of blame and show that the authorities at Washington were not free of fault.

Even when the war has been won, the American people will want to be given fullest information about Pearl Harbor, which struck down a large part of the nation's naval power in the Pacific and thus made possible Japan's enormous conquests in that sea. As far as the two commanders at Pearl Harbor are concerned, there is no desire for vengeance.

Penalties imposed within the framework of their obligations and the regulations of the two services will be scrutinized at the appropriate time against the larger background of the government's state of preparation, or lack of it, when Japan struck.

WHY NOT A SIMPLE INCOME TAX?

Ordinary taxpayers should feel a little better about their intellectual capacities after reading of Representative Doughton's confession that he had to employ the services of an expert to make his September 15 declaration of estimated income.

The North Carolina Congressman is chairman of the House Ways and Means committee, which drafts the tax laws. And if he couldn't make heads or tails of the income tax forms, it is not surprising that the rest of us were stumped, too.

Mr. Doughton has now joined with Chairman George of the Senate Finance committee in insisting that the income tax be simplified. That issue is certain to be popular. To most of us, not schooled in the intricacies of tax law and having forgotten about all of the mathematics we learned in school except simple arithmetic, the actual parting with tax money is less painful than the mental anguish of filling out the complex tax forms according to the rules and regulations. Especially since we have to do that work under the psychological handicap of the fearsome penalties of the law and the habit of revenue agents in checking on your returns two or three years later and demanding to know whys and wherefores of all your figures.

The simple idea behind the income tax is that each should contribute to the government according to his ability to pay. Why should the payment of the tax be needlessly complicated? Why shouldn't it be possible to devise a simple form whereon the taxpayer would list his income from various sources, his exemptions and deductions allowable by law, the taxes paid by withholdings at the source, and then mail that form in to the local Federal revenue collector and receive by mail soon thereafter a statement showing how much additional tax, if any, is due.—Washington, D. C., News.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

USE COSMETICS WISELY

We parents might as well command the sun not to rise or set as to command the teen-age girl not to try to make herself attractive. Her notion of being attractive is to use some cosmetics. Because of our wider experience, we parents believe it would be better for these girls to trust to Nature's beauty but these youngster's don't see as we see. A mother writes:

"I have a daughter who is 14 and is a freshman in high school. She has decided she wants to use lipstick and a little powder. I disagree and tell her she is too young. I know all her young girl friends use it. Should I let her use it?"

I think I know how you feel for I can remember when I first saw lipstick on my only daughter who was then about 15. She did not even ask whether she might use it. She just did. My first impulse was to tell her to go wash off her lips. Sensing my disturbance, her patient mother who always understood this daughter in her early teens better than I did, calmed me down and assured me she would show our daughter how to use cosmetics with better taste. The mother's patience was rewarded.

Excessive Use of Cosmetics

Some high school teachers, especially older women teachers, react about as I did to excessive use of cosmetics by high school girls. They would have more wholesome influence on these girls were they more patient and ready to lead these young excessive users of cosmetics to apply it more moderately, more artistically. In this direction most home economics teachers are highly successful.

Incidentally, the problem of excessive use of cosmetics is not so prevalent today as it was some years ago. It is also gratifying that the average high school girl today wears sensible, low-heel shoes, it being the thing to do.

Make-Up for Young Girl

Inasmuch as a girl normally desires to be attractive to the boys, she would do well to realize that no boy or man likes to be made glaringly conscious of cosmetics, though he may like good artistic effect. Nor does he like to see lipstick and powder being applied. I wonder why some mothers don't set a good example to their daughters by "freshening up" in private.

Many girls of ten or 12 not only will, if allowed, use cosmetics, but they also want permanents and the like. Recently I was informed by a nursery school teacher that permanents by the "babies" of her school were the rage. Such precocity at adornment is undoubtedly very unwholesome. If, for economic reasons, it must be a choice between a visit to the hairdresser by the mother or her daughter under 15 or so, let it be the mother who goes. Though there is considerable extravagance at the beauty shop many a mother and grandmother gets a lift out of a reasonable number of visits thereto.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. Would you require a child under 15 to attend Sunday school?

A. Yes; provided his parents both went with him.

Q. I have a 2½-year-old granddaughter who holds food in her mouth. She has a very poor appetite.

A. Quit feeding her or trying to force her to eat. This habit arises out of pushing food into a child and doing it faster than the child can masticate it comfortably. My special bulletin on "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction," may be had by sending a stamped envelope with a three-cent stamp to 235 East 45th street, New York City.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES TIME

Now the frost is in the air,
Blue the haze at early dawn.
There is color everywhere.
Old and ragged looks the lawn.
Autumn's resting on the hills.
Harvested are fruit and grain,
And the home with gladness thrills.
Buckwheat cakes are back again!

Every season has its joys.
Every day its touch of mirth.
For us all—both girls and boys—
God has well supplied the earth
What if care must fall between
Peace and pleasure now and then?
Autumn holds this happy scene:
Buckwheat cakes are back again!

At some battle post afar,
Munda Field or gray Attu,
Yankee soldiers stationed are,
Facing death for me and you.
There, recalling joys they miss
To their fighting fellow men,
They no doubt are saying this:
"Buckwheat cakes are back again!"

Time and trouble change us all.
Youth gives way to middle age,
One by one our fancies fall
Till we reach life's final stage,
But in spite of aches and pains
And the difference old age makes Man devoted still remains
To a stack of buckwheat cakes

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 6:33. Sun rise tomorrow 7:03.

Apple butter shortage is reported in some places. That will not affect a lot of people who see some of it made.

There are 80 drinks in a gallon of whisky, it is claimed, and the new tax will be 12½ cents on each drink. Hic!

Most everything gets worse before it gets better.

"The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while—that costs the least, does the most, is just a pleasant smile. It's full of worth, and goodness, too, with hearty kindness blent—it's worth a million dollars, and doesn't cost a cent."

HIS GOOD TURN

Once when Irvin S. Cobb was a reporter on his home-town paper, in Paducah, Ky., he was sent to do the story of the hanging of a Negro.

The sheriff couldn't read or write, and Cobb volunteered to read the death warrant to the Negro, which he did.

The Negro had worked for Cobb's father, and, as Cobb finished, the condemned man peered through the cell door and said, "Thank you very kindly, Massa Irvin. I allus knowed if th' time come for you-all to do me a favor you-all would do it."

We often don't take advice which afterwards we wish we had taken.

The natives of Algeria, we read, suffer from a shortage of clothing. In view of the climate there, nudism would seem the logical answer.

Everybody likes to ride in a station wagon.

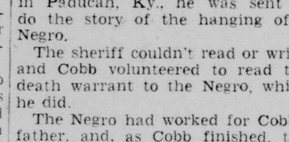

Two girls were talking:
"What kind of a fellow is your sweetie?"
"When the lights went out as we sat together on the porch, he put in his time trying to fix the fuse."
"Handy, ain't he?"

There is an area in New Mexico where rainstorms occur about once in 90 years. What a spot for an umbrella salesman to try his mettle.

Often it's a good thing not to tell the things you know about.

Perhaps you have noticed that the rockers of a chair never stick half so far behind as when a man is prowling about in the dark barefooted.

NEW YORKERS STUPID

Teacher: "What are the people of New York noted for?"

Boy: "The people of New York are noted for their stupidity."

Teacher: "Wherever did you get that information?"

Boy: "From our book. Miss. It says, 'the population of New York is very dense.' "

So far no substitute has been found for meat.

A sailor on shore leave walked into a jeweler to purchase a ring for his best girl. After selecting a ring, he asked the jeweler: "What will you charge to engrave 'From George to Alice' on the inside of the ring? I have to economize, you know."

"In that case," replied the jeweler, "I'd suggest that you merely have the words 'From George' . . . then, you can use it again."

There always is a lot of talking in Washington about making new taxes. There is a good reason for it. The money is needed.

"Did that soldier attempt to kiss you last night?"

"Why, mother, you don't think he came all the way from camp just to listen to our radio, do you?"

One can get a good idea of war by going through an army camp, especially if one has gone over the ground when a kid in his bare feet.

A CINDERELLA MARRIAGE

"I am only 20 and overwhelmed by a proposal of marriage from a very sophisticated executive of 35 who has been almost everywhere and seen almost everything. As I have just finished a commercial course, have never been anywhere beyond a few nearby resorts, have never afforded expensive clothes or jewelry, or a social career, I hesitate to accept him for fear that even before the honeymoon is over he may regard me as inferior."—Kitty.

Answer: Your very attitude toward the problem proves that you have character and principle. And as you have these assets, your problem is already solved. If your fiance is of the truly masculine type, he will enjoy a great thrill from your pleasurable reactions to new scenes, new possessions, new plays, new books, new friends. A large part of the love of a normal man for a woman 15 years his junior has a very wholesome paternal element. And such an element but strengthens the alloy. So you have absolutely nothing to fear or to be ashamed of as far as are concerned the purely imaginary shortcomings you erroneously attribute to yourself.

Yours will be a Cinderella marriage, and they usually are successful and enduring.

Question: Please tell me what are the smartest announcements of a new baby in the family.—Mrs. Z.

Answer: Those with the tiny card bearing the baby's name and the date of its birth and attached to the mother's card. Although these baby cards are usually attached to the mother's card, they may, instead, be attached to the "Mr. and Mrs." cards.

Question: Is it necessary to reply to a bread and butter letter?

Answer: These letters should be answered to assure the guest that her visit was enjoyed by the hostess.

Tomorrow—Premature Gray Hair

PREMATURELY ILL

What with the liquor situation being as it is and whisky scarce, A. C. and a friend decided to put a bottle aside for emergencies.

Five days later A. C. felt a little low and decided this was an emergency warranting a trip to the bottle.

"Angus" he told his friend. "I am verra ill:"

"Too late, A. C.," said Angus. "I was verra sick yesterday."

HUMAN NATURE

"Why is it," asked the curious guest, "that poor men usually give larger tips than rich men?"

"Well, suh," said the waiter, who was something of a philosopher as well, "looks to me like de po, man don't want nobody to find out he's po', and de rich man don't want nobody to find out he's rich."

NEVER MIND THE AGE

Mr. Totterly: "Could you marry a very old man with a great deal of money, if he told you frankly how old he was and how much he was worth?"

Miss Timely: "How much is he worth?"

Brief summary of any Washington report: "I am doing a swell job."

Some people are sensitive, and others don't watch for opportunities to feel mistreated.

It is not true that officials in Washington cannot keep secrets. Take, for instance, our foreign policy.

If you work a problem wrong, you discard and forget it and start over. Then why remember and brood over other errors?

How would you punctuate this sentence—"Miss Smith a beautiful girl of nineteen walked down the street?"

Well, the only way that I would do it, is to make a dash after Miss Smith.

If one asks favors, and yet has the gall to say no when the other asks anything, they are married.

The war is won only if the soldiers, seeing the final results, can say: "That is what I fought for."

Dixie is the region where nine in ten think Mr. Hull exactly right but can't tell what he is right about.

"May I ask you the secret of success?" an ambitious young man said to a great merchant.

"There is no easy secret," replied the merchant. "You must jump at your opportunity."

"But how can I tell when my opportunity comes?"

"You can't," snapped the merchant. "You have to keep jumping."

If they indict every fraud in Washington who pretends to have inside influence, it will at least relieve the housing shortage.

Inside Washington

Roosevelts Are Perfecting Working Team
Report Of First Lady's Tour Convincing
Yanks Are Doing Real Job Against Enemy

By HELEN ESSARY
(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Now and then you hear somebody say, "Why doesn't the president manage Mrs. Roosevelt? Why doesn't he keep her at home? What good does she do, running around the place in the way she does? He must be downright embarrassed at her goings-on."

Nonsense! Such talk! Mr. Roosevelt isn't at all embarrassed by Mrs. Roosevelt's goings-on. He is pleased and grateful that she does just as she does. He wants her to "go running around the place."

Why? you ask. I'll give you the correct answer to the question. Because Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt are the most perfect working team in any public office in the United States of America since Martha Washington planted the crops at Mt. Vernon while Gen. George was off winning the Revolutionary War.

If I myself had ever doubted such a thought, I would have known I was mistaken when I heard Mrs. Roosevelt's report on her trip Down Under at her first White House press conference since her return from foreign parts.

Mrs. Roosevelt stood in the center of a group of about 100 men and women reporters. The admittance of "the gentlemen," as Mrs. Roosevelt called the male reporters was the sensation of the meeting. She talked not as a woman who had gone traipsin' off on her own to see the sights, but as the other half of a working team. A working team that had a terrific job to do and which, I quickly add, means to keep on doing it for years to come—maybe five or six terms. Maybe.

"My own husband said that, as long as I was going on this trip at the suggestion of the authorities in New Zealand and Australia and of the American Red Cross, it would be a good idea if I were to visit the hospitals and find out about our own boys. And so I did this," she said calmly of the most remarkable journey any president's wife has ever made.

Quite a suodued and a much thinner Mrs. Roosevelt, this one who had come back from 25,000 miles of traveling and 17 island stops. Perhaps the trip had indeed tired the president's wife. There was little of her characteristic exuberance in voice and manner. "When you saw the boys working at their big and little jobs in strange places with makeshift materials—they looked so young. So very young! And then you'd see them lying in the hospitals and you'd think 'Oh, they're old men!' Yet they never whimper. I felt such pride in them. They are paying heavily to do what has to be done at any cost to themselves."

"I don't think we at home know what a big job we have to do," she added solemnly. As the second in command in the White House team of Roosevelt and Roosevelt, the First Lady must have felt heart-breaking responsibility in the plight of those boys and the job that is indeed yet to be done.

Extremely definite was Mrs. Roosevelt when she spoke of the work of the Red Cross. "They are doing the best they can with the materials they have.

Most of Mrs. Roosevelt's report was about "our boys". This is as it should have been. It is "our boys" who are doing the real work of the war. She almost spoke the language of "our boys". "Golly!" she declared some of the men on forgotten, far away islands said. "Golly! Aren't we ever going to get off this place?"

When questioned about the cost of her trip, Mrs. Roosevelt said emphatically, "I paid all the cost myself except for a seat on regular transport planes after I left San Francisco. There is no other way to travel after you leave this country."

Has Mrs. Roosevelt already reported every small and large discovery of her journey to her husband? Of course she has. I repeat, Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt are the smartest public team either hemisphere has ever known.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt, presenting bombers to Yugoslavian ambassador: "The first (duty of these planes) is to drop bombs on our common enemy successfully and at the right points. The second is to deliver to your compatriots in Yugoslavia the much-needed supplies for which they have waited so long—food, medicine—yes, arms and ammunition."

CHICAGO — Assistant Secretary of War for Air Robert A. Lovett: "Our ground trooos in training attack replicas of enemy positions in the face of fire with live ammunition, . . . As a result they keep down in training and more important still they keep down when they face the enemy."

NEW YORK — OWI Director Elmer Davis: "In this country, thanks to our flanking ocean we tend to think of security primarily in naval terms. Nevertheless, we too, are likely to be in reach of bombers in the next year and of air-borne invasion too."

COLUMBUS, O. — Gov. Dwight Griswold, of Nebraska: "The present war has been more expensive and lengthened because of the desire of our president in 1939 and 1940 to be re-elected. Certainly he knew then things which were not told us—which should have been told us if he had not desired to be elected to another term."

The proper illustration for a history of war is a picture of a taxpayer with a broken back.

The World and the Mud Puddles

JUST BE SURE

If ever the American people—or the people of any other nation—had an example of the danger that lies in over-confidence, they have it now in the plight that confronts the Axis.

Recall the events that were taking place three years ago. Hitler had, in a few short weeks, sent his armies into Norway, then through France, Belgium, Denmark, the Netherlands. He had pushed the British off the continent and had turned in the direction of the Balkans. Soon he was to invade Yugoslavia and go to the rescue of the fumbling Mussolini, who attacked Albania and was almost whipped by the sturdy and determined Greeks.

No situation ever appeared brighter than Hitler's future appeared at that time. The British army had been all but destroyed. Its effectiveness as a fighting unit was at zero because it had nothing left with which to fight. All of its arms, ammunition, motorized equipment and supplies had been left on the beaches at Dunkerque. The aid that we then were prepared to send was tragically small. Russia was not at war and was, in fact, aligned with Hitler in a non-aggression pact that enabled Germany to romp over Europe at will. The British air force was ineffective against the proud and mighty Luftwaffe that, three years ago, was tearing London to bits, night after night.

If ever a nation was justified in feeling confident, Germany was. If ever a nation was justified in feeling despair and gloom, England was in those dark days. And over-confidence is precisely what led to the reversal of the situation, for Hitler, flushed with his victories and filled with a desire to flaunt his vanity and his prowess as a military genius, stopped to gloat.

He tormented the British by radio as he delivered his bombastic speeches, threatening to march into London at the head of a victorious army. He apparently gained sadistic pleasure in doing this, for instead of crossing the channel and storming the ramparts of the British Isles, which were then poorly protected, he fooled around France. He paraded through Paris and told the world how senseless it was to refuse to recognize the Germans as invincible. Many believed him and several weaker, fearful nations joined the Axis. Hitler was riding the crest of a wave in which were mixed fear, admiration and, in his own country, adoration.

While at the crest of this overconfidence, Hitler tore up his pact

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

A reader sends me a very flattering letter about this little column. "Once I'd given anything to be a writer," she says, "but not anymore. Life has become too raw to write about."

And then she goes on to tell me about her family troubles, disappointments with her children and other similar reasons, which, as she says, make it impossible for her to write.

About those children of hers, she explains, left alone they were wonderful. It was the contact with the world that spoiled them.

So life has become too raw to write about!

What else is life but raw?

Everyone of us gets his life handed to him in the raw—we have to cook it to suit our tastes and to the best of our ability as chefs.

How else could anyone write except by knowing life?

And what would happen to this world if all of us were cowed and discouraged by disappointment and trouble?

As a newspaperman I have met many great people. I don't know one who has not become greater by his troubles and disappointments.

Edison was deaf. Lincoln had a most unfortunate personality. Steinmetz was a dwarf-like hunchback. Roosevelt was stricken with infantile paralysis. Helen Keller is blind. Einstein was thrown out of Germany because of his religion.

Troubles? Disappointments?

A hundred cases come to my mind of men and women who overcame every handicap, who became stronger with each stroke of fate.

So when this reader says "life has become too raw to write", she simply doesn't know the first rudiments of writing.

And how can she blame the errings of her children on "contact with the world".

How can anyone go through life except by contact with the world?

It's ujst those contacts that make life worth living, it's contact with the world that brings us knowledge, friendship and success.

The lady of whom I speak tells me how much help she gets from my writings.

How have I helped her when she thinks the world is all wrong and life isn't worth living?

What good is a medicine if it is put on the shelf unopened?

To get the benefit of a prescription, open the bottle, read the directions—then take as prescribed.

Japanese Navy Passes Up Defy

U. S. Naval Attack On Wake Island Challenge To Jap Navy

(Editor's Note—The attack on Wake island and the naval strategy of the Pacific is discussed in the following article by Major Paul C Raborg, note military analyst and author of "Mechanized Might".)

By MAJOR PAUL C. RABORG
Written Especially for International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—United States naval task forces with carrier-based planes do not hesitate to conduct far-flung raids into the very heart of the Nipponese island outposts of defense. The attack on Wake island was a strong blow delivered in defiance of the Japanese navy.

But perhaps it was baiting the warships of the empire of the Rising Sun.

Wake island is a little less than half-way on a due west line from Hawaii to the Philippines. It is to the east of the Nipponese north-and-south line of outpost islands which commences at New Britain in the south and includes Truk island Guam, Rota and Saipan, ending in the Ogasawara islands just south of Japan. Wake is north of the Japanese great east-west line of island outposts which consists of Palau Yap, Truk, Ponape and Juliut.

Within Jap Territory

Therefore it may be seen that Wake island is directly within the right angle formed by the east-west and north-south line of Japanese outpost islands. In other words, it is in the very heart of enemy territory.

Commencing with the Nipponese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, the Japanese war lords were undoubtedly of the opinion that the could cause a condition of over-extension to the United States navy. When that was accomplished they thought strong units of Nippon's navy could strike and destroy separated portions of the American Pacific fleet.

Actually the reverse happened. The Japanese have had to divide their navy into at least three distinct separate strong portions.

One is based at their home islands and is big enough for operations westward towards the Aleutians and Alaska.

Naval Force Large

The second, a sizeable portion, had to be held in the vicinity of Truk island to guard both their north-south and east-west outpost lines. The third is based at Singapore.

The United States navy has in all probability maintained a northern Pacific fleet for the protection of the Aleutians and Alaska and a South Pacific fleet to perform the same duties for Australia and our islands to the east.

However, it seems that Admiral Nimitz has been able at all times to keep major portions of his hitting naval strength based at the central location—Hawaii, where that force can strike in any direction on a moment's notice.

Apparently the United States navy been trying for a long time to entice the largest possible portion of the Japanese navy out from their protecting islands into the open.

Striking into the very heart of enemy territory keeps the Nipponese on edge wondering if each blow is the commencement of a sustained attack on those Japanese island outposts.

Medical Society Hears Capt. French

New Method Of Treatment Is Explained To Lawrence County Medical Society

Captain Travis A. French, of Camp Reynolds, formerly a local physician was the interesting speaker, on Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the meeting of the Lawrence County Medical society held at The Castleton.

Captain French chose for his subject, "New Methods in the Management of Fractures and Burns, Learned from Experience with Present War Casualties". Captain French explained the method used in treating compound fractures and burns. His talk was well-received by the large crowd present. November 4, is the next meeting.

BLAME DELINQUENCY ON BROKEN HOMES

HARRISBURG, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Broken homes were blamed today for a tremendous wartime increase in juvenile delinquency.

"The broken home, caused by mothers working, parents working split hours, and divorce, are leading our children into crime," William C. Hinze, of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Philadelphia, told delegates to the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers last night.

"Pennsylvania has thousands of high school girls who are mistaken in their conception of their obligations to men in uniform," he stated. "This distorted outlook on the war we are fighting for liberty is not corrected by parents until it has led to juvenile delinquency."

Beware Coughs Following Flu

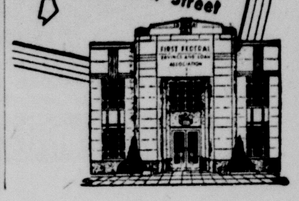

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Soldiers Built Mahogany Bridge In South Pacific

PITTSBURGH — (INS) — The boys up front needed a bridge across a swiftly flowing tropical river so they could get fresh artillery. The combat engineers built one for them—a 50-foot span of solid mahogany.

A tree is just a tree on an island in the South Pacific no matter what it would be worth per board foot over here, explained Sgt. Charles A. Schue of Belle Vernon, who has helped blast the Japanese from stubbornly held positions.

The engineers didn't pay too much attention to the type of wood they were using, Sergeant Schue said. The Yanks needed to get heavy guns and tanks moved forward over the river, and mahogany wood was all the engineers could find for the heavy work. It served the purpose and was used for everything—piling, supports, and cross pieces. Later the American soldiers rigged up a sawmill and made two-by-fours from it.

With the fresh supplies for the U. S. forces brought across the bridge, the "trick was turned," and the fire power of their guns soon wiped out the Japs who were holding up the advance.

A Pittsburgh lumberman, making a "wild estimate" on the value of the mahogany lumber if it were in his yard, put the figure for the 50-foot bridge at $100,000. Top-grade mahogany two inches thick and 12 inches wide sells in Pittsburgh for $417 per 1,000 feet. Mahogany is one of the most desired woods for furniture in this country—and one of the most expensive.

NO CO-PILOTS

MAXWELL FIELD, Ala.—The term "co-pilot" would be abolished if it was left up to pilots who have returned to the United States from combat missions overseas.

That, at least, is the consensus among Maxwell Field's 4-engine instructors who have seen combat service in the various far-flung theaters of battle.

"There isn't any such thing as a co-pilot," they assert.

"He's just the other pilot, and that's all there is to it."

with Russia and marched against his former ally. He confidently expected to destroy the Russian armies within six or eight weeks, and military observers throughout the world believed that he would do it. But he had overplayed his hand. He had marched the wrong way. He had taken his propaganda minister too seriously and had begun to believe that he was as great a military genius as Goebbels said he was.

Everyone remembers what has happened thereafter. Month by month, week by week, day by day, Hitler's hopes of ruling the world have been diminishing. As compared to his annual summer offensives since 1939, Hitler's push against Russia this year fizzled out like a wet firecracker. Instead of gaining his objective, the oil fields in the Caucasus and securing undisputed control over the Ukraine, he has been pushed back, with enormous losses, until in some sectors today the German retreat is approaching a rout. Excuses have been made that all this has been "according to plan"; that he is withdrawing to shorter lines to protect other fronts. But his experience on other fronts have been equally or even more disastrous. He has lost Africa, he has lost Sicily and he is now being pushed out of Italy, with Greece Albania and Yugoslavia endangered by the Allies. He is feverishly trying to anticipate where the Allies will strike next—in France, Denmark Norway, the Netherlands, or where. He doesn't know. And all the while his factories, transportation and communication systems within Germany are being shattered by the British air force, which he once scorned and the American fliers who he said never would reach Europe.

Let us not make the mistake that Hitler made. We are winning now and the future looks bright. But, it is no brighter than Germany's future appeared three years ago. And look at Germany today.

OCD NOTES

Activities Of OCD Workers Are Outlined Here

A change of senior wardens has been made in Post 3-2. A. G. Zahniser has resigned his duties as senior warden, and George Fisher has been elected to serve for the ensuing year.

Seventh Ward Auxiliary Fire Company meeting which was postponed from October 4, will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m., October 11. Full attendance is urged because an election of officers will occur. Frank Sargent will be present.

Meetings of the various OCD groups which have been held in this past few weeks, at which Mr. Sargent has been present, have brought out many interesting things and have cleared up many misunderstandings. The turnout of members of different groups has been excellent. He still has a large number of groups to visit but asks that the meeting time be listed at the OCD office so that there will be no conflictions with other meetings. It has been necessary in the past to list 10 p. m. as a starting time for some meetings. This makes the finish of the meeting too late. There is still some open dates for these meetings next week.

HARLANSBURG

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Eakin gathered at their home Thursday, Sept. 30, to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. All the children and grandchildren were home except Forrest Eakin, who is in naval training in Boston, Mass. The honored couple received a number of greetings, gifts and other lovely remembrances.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE MEETS

A good number of ladies of the Baptist Missionary Circle met with Mrs. Edna McCracken for their regular monthly business and social gathering. A bountiful tureen dinner was enjoyed and sewing was done. Mrs. Emma Mallinak was devotional leader and her subject was "The Bible".

HARLANSBURG NOTES

Mrs. Ralph Heckathorne is improving each day.

Mrs. Ida Forrest has been visiting in Pittsburgh during the past week.

J. Manning Hunt spent several days at his home here and has returned to his Army training in Utah.

Mrs. Forrest Eakin returned home after spending some time with her husband, who is recovering from an illness of several weeks with virus pneumonia in the Naval hospital at Boston. Mr. Eakin is very much improved.

Automobile polishing can be simplified by using a solution of gum camphor made of one cake dissolved in one pint of light mineral oil. Allow the solution to dry overnight and wipe it off next morning.

PROBE REPORT 'FIREPROOF' COAL SOLD IN BROOKLYN

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—(INS)—The Office of Price Administration today began investigation of charges that "at least 25,000 tons" of "fireproof" coal has been sold to Brooklyn householders in the last few months.

Clarence W. Donnelly, secretary of the Fuel Merchants' Association, Inc., said the coal was of an uncombustible type usually used for ship's ballast, and will not burn in any grate. He blamed "the jackal fringe" of the coal retail industry.

Mitchell Jelline, chief enforcement attorney of the district OPA, said that the matter has also been brought to the attention of the district attorney.

A. Z. A. CHAPTER MEETING IS HELD

New Castle Chapter of A. Z. A. No. 248, held its semi-monthly meeting at the Leslie hotel, at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening.

Burton Sloan, president, announced the new committees and the chairmen.

Dr. H. Sloan, and A. Shenkan, advisors, spoke to the club on cultural activities.

October 21, is the next meeting.

URGES HALT TO CARELESS TALK

HARRISBURG, Oct. 8.—(INS)—The public was urged today by Gov. Edward Martin to cooperate with the FBI and other government agencies in halting "careless talk and complacency," termed "a greater menace now than ever before."

"Complacency is jumping the gun and may jam it," declared the chief executive. It hampers production and fosters "a lot of harmful talking (and) puts the American on the spot where he is aiding the Axis," he added.

"Fight for the lives of your sons, your neighbor's sons, the lives of Americans by withholding that bit of news, that bridge club gossip that may contain a germ of fact the enemy wants," he continued.

"Control of careless talk is not the mission of a day, a week, or a month; it is a mission of all time, a responsibility for all of us."

Whence came the phrase, "crocodile tears"? From the fact that when a crocodile fills its mouth with food, the pressure against the top of the mouth releases tears from the lachrymal glands.

Close Election For UAW-CIO Treasurer

BUFFALO, Oct. 8.—(INS)—By the scant margin of 72 votes, George F. Addes retained his position today as secretary-treasurer of the UAM-CIO, the nation's biggest labor union.

Addes defeated Richard T. Leonard, of Detroit, a member of the International Executive Board, in the hottest election ever held in the story history of the United Auto Workers Union.

The final results of the election, however, were not known until shortly after two o'clock this morning, when the credentials committee completed a re-count of a roll-call vote and disclosed officially that Addes had emerged victorious.

The word "assassin" derives from a sect of fanatic Mohammedans at the time of the Crusades, who were called Hashisheens, from their practice of using the drug hashish to spur them to murder. Europeans later called them assassins and this became the common name for political murderers.

Toward a New World

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS, an idealist indomitably convinced of his own theories, found a new continent which was to become a haven for the poor, the oppressed, the unwanted. Because of the dauntless courage of one man with every odd against him, America was opened for settlement. Let us draw upon his store of courage and resoluteness. Let us stand firm in our beliefs. Let us never lose faith in democracy and all that it stands for. Let us give our all to recreate that part of the world which has already fallen prey to the onslaught of the oppressor. Let us keep on buying all of the war bonds and stamps which we can afford.

This evening, prayer meeting will be held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Martin Walker, McCleary avenue at Harbor street.

Prayer Meeting

There will be a prayer meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williams, corner of Galbreath and Hamilton streets, this evening at 7:30 o'clock for members of Bethlehem Baptist church.

Young People's Meeting

This evening, the Young People's Group of the Clifton Flats Mission will have a special meeting at the mission. The occasion will commemorate the spiritual birthday of a number of members of the group.

The Young People's Group orchestra will play several special hymns, and give vocal numbers. The Pilgrim Mission Radio staff will also give vocal numbers.

Christian Endeavor Union

Lawrence County Christian Endeavor Union held its monthly meeting Thursday evening in Central Presbyterian church. Rev. Clyde Roland, pastor of the Madison Avenue Christian church, has charge of the worship program.

The leadership superintendent outlined the following studies for the next six meetings: Worship program of the society, discussion, stewardship, missionary, social activities and evangelism.

The following committee was appointed to arrange for a high school and senior Young People's group convention to be held the early part of November: Ruth Garrity, James Shaw, Miriam Hosler, Gay Rodgers and Rev. Clyde Roland.

It was reported that the county union had contributed a substantial sum to the U.S.O. center at Camp Reynolds. It was also announced that the Christian Endeavor society of Central Presbyterian church will have charge of the evening church services Sunday evening, October 10, and all Endeavors were invited.

Dorcas Class

Members of the Dorcas class, Central Christian church, met in the church Thursday evening with Mrs. Elizabeth Price in charge of devotions.

Plans were made to have a class reunion on November 6. Lunch was served by Mrs. Margaret Jenkins the hostess, assisted by Ellen White.

Mrs. Clarence Frey, Adams street will be next hostess to the group.

Child Evangelism Group

Child Evangelism Fellowship group met at the home of Mrs Malinda Pagley recently. Mrs. Hilda Fredericks opened the meeting with a talk on "Our Responsibility to Children".

Election of officers for the new year took place with the following results: secretary, Mrs. Ruth Lutz; treasurer, Mrs. Melba Clark; committe chairman, Mrs. Hilda Frederick; prayer chairman, Mrs. Ruth Nuzum.

October 24 was set as child evangelism day for the city and surrounding towns.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Peter Weyrick, West Washington street extension, Monday October 25, at 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. Pagley, director of Lawrence county, was in charge of the meeting.

Contest Winners Feted

Members of the red team, Lester Hauschild, captain, in a recent Sunday school attendance contest, were honored by members of the blue team at a party given in the First Presbyterian church Thursday evening.

Entertainment included tricks by a musician from Ellwood City, movies, and refreshments served to a large representation of the Sunday school.

Awards were given to the members of each side having perfect attendance records for the 13 weeks of the contest and to the four persons who brought in the most new members for the Sunday school.

Harry Gibson, captain of the losing team, was chairman of the program; Mrs. H. E. Golder had charge of refreshments, and Albert Street, secretary of attendance, made the awards.

Announcement was made concerning Rally Day October 10 for which a goal of 600 has been set.

The speaker will be Leo Mackey, prominent attorney and Christian layman from Sharon who is vice president of the State Sabbath School Association.

Tuesday Prayer Group

Tuesday morning prayer group of the U. P. churches, met Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, in the Oakgrove U. P. church, 56 in attendance.

Mrs. Glenn Carpenter, of the First U. P. church was the leader, and Mrs. J. A. Wilson, of the Third U. P. church, had charge of the news items. The topic of the day was "Our Missionaries in India."

Mrs. George Craven, of the Second U. P. church conducted business.

The noon day speaker was Rev. James Blackwood of the Oakgrove church. Rev. Blackwood chose his subject, "When I Am Afraid I Will Trust in Thee," from the 56th Psalm.

POSTPONE ACTION

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 8.—(INS)—Proposals to liberalize the Episcopal church's marriage laws were put aside for another three years today after the house of deputies at the 54th triennial convention turned down such action by a one-fourth vote margin.

Voting was by orders and by dioceses, the final tabulation showing the proposal failed of a constitutional majority. Earlier, the house of deputies had accepted a minority report which would have granted discretionary authority in the case of second marriages to the bishop, but the house voted the amended canon down.

PREHISTORIC MONSTER

PASADENA, Cal.—(INS)—Looking very much like the skeleton of a Flying Fortress, "Old Ples" was back in shape again today at the Mud Hall of the California Institute of Technology, just a year after scientists first began chipping his bones out of a chunk of shale in Fresno county. "Old Ples" is the affectionate name the Caltech scientists gave the 30-foot prehistoric sea monster, estimated to have lived 100,000,000 years ago when the great central valley of California was part of the ocean's floor.

SEVENTH WARD

PRESBYTERIANS HAVE PICNIC AND PROGRAM

There was a good attendance on Wednesday evening, at the postponed annual picnic of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, given in the church dining room.

The occasion took the form of a tureen dinner at 6:30. Mrs. Paul Bender Mrs. C. C. Comstock, Mrs. Flora Urey comprised the table committee. Mrs. Gertrude Marshall and Mrs. G. H. Cook were the coffee committee. Mrs. Herman Rhodes and C. H. Comstock were in charge of the ice cream treat.

After the dinner, Dr. John Orr, the pastor, gave an interesting talk on "Peace," followed by a short prayer service.

In the main auditorium a splendid program was given under the direction of Dr. E. L. Vincent.

Arthur Walker showed some splendid moving pictures of travel and scenery, also humorous pictures.

Ernest Farver gave a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Ruth Glenn.

AUXILIARY LADIES OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

At the home of Mrs. M. R. Olmstead of 411 Fifth street, members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Order of Railroad Conductors were entertained on Thursday afternoon.

The gathering took the form of celebrating the fifty-fifth anniversary of the organization with a splendid chicken dinner. Mrs. F. E. Flowers, the president, was also honored, it being the 25th anniversary of her membership. Mrs. Flowers was presented with a 25-year pin.

Sewing was the diversion of the afternoon.

The next meeting will be entertained by Mrs. Harry Rankin on October 21.

SOCIETY HAS PLANNED COLUMBUS DAY BANQUET

On Tuesday, at 6:30, the annual Columbus Day banquet will be given by the members of Christopher Columbus society at their hall, 7 South Liberty street.

The table committee is John Rainey, Frank Marchioni, Joe Adamo, Domenick Velucci, Andy Vastano, Tom Tommelleo, Tony Conti. Chairmen and aides, Joe Zumpella and Pete Fracco, Patsy Piscitella, Marino Sparagli. Doormen, Nick Domenick, Angelo Sandora.

BOY SCOUTS MEET

At Mahoning school, the Boy Scouts Troop V-4, met at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening.

A contest for points was commenced among the patrols of the troop.

A number of the boys passed their tests. Scribe, Gene Gribble.

PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN

From the war department, Washington, D. C., comes the announcement that Frank Leroy Humphrey of 708 West Clayton street, attached to the Engineer Corps, has been promoted from the rank of first lieutenant to captain.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

Mrs. Q. E. Davy of North Cedar street and Miss Alma Wolverton deaconess, of Phillips street, delegates from the Mahoning Methodist church, have returned after attending the annual meeting of the Erie Conference Women's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Davy is an officer of the conference.

TRANSFERRED

Word has been received by Mrs. Marie Russo, of 10 Montgomery avenue, that her husband, Pvt. Paul R. Russo, attached to the Engineers Corps, has been transferred from New Cumberland to Van Dorn, Miss.

STRUCK BY ROCK

Joseph Fennick, aged 16 years, of R. F. D. No. 5, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital, at 7:15 o'clock, Thursday evening, for a laceration of the face, received when he was struck by a rock.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mrs. Robert Heaton and son, Bobby, of Toronto, Ohio, is spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tindall, of Willow Grove.

Mrs. Margaret Palerino of R. D. 7 Mahoningtown, has been admitted to the New Castle hospital for treatment.

Seaman Second Class Ed Morosky of Great Lakes naval training station is on leave visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morosky of West Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Gibson of Cleveland are visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. Myrtle Miller and family, and brother Frank and Mrs Gibson, all of West Cherry street.

Benjamin Domenick of R. D. 7 Mahoningtown, who has been ill at his home with an attack of grip, is much improved and has returned to his employment.

Private William D. Pritchett, of Greenville, S. C., has returned to camp after spending 10 days furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pritchett, of Bolt street.

Seaman Second Class Carmen Nocera, stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, is spending his leave visiting with his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Nocera of 312 North Liberty street.

Seaman Second Class Anthony Conti, Jr., is here on leave for nine days visiting with his parents, Mr and Mrs. Anthony Conti, Sr., and family of 216 West Wabash avenue. He is stationed at Great Lakes naval training station, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shaw, of Second street, have received word from their son, Army Cadet Ralph M Shaw, that he is stationed at Greensboro, N. C. He was employed at the B. and O. railroad shops before his enlistment.

The power of the press is limited. The readers who say amen to an argument are already convinced, and the others won't read it.

The ranting, hell-fire kind of preaching may disgust you, but it is the only kind that appeals to the people it is meant to reach.

Fall Presbyterial At Beaver Falls

Dr. R. F. Galbreath Is Speaker At Meeting Of Beaver Valley Group

Dr. R. F. Galbreath, president of Westminster College, New Wilmington, was one of the principal speakers at the Fall Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society of Beaver Valley Presbyterian held in College Hill United Presbyterian church, Beaver Falls, all day Thursday. Over 300 women attended the meeting.

Dr. Galbreath, who spoke during the afternoon session, on "Our Youth and Our Horizons," spoke of the importance of mothers in molding the lives of the youth of tomorrow and gave illustrations, naming well known people who had noble mothers.

The morning session of Presbyterial opened at 9:30 o'clock with an executive meeting, followed by devotions led by Mrs. J. F. Smith of College Hill church and the business session when reports were given by the treasurer and various secretaries of the organization. Mrs. H. Parker Smith, president, Aliquippa, presided.

Reports on the W. G. M. S. Convention were given in the morning by Mrs. Eugene Ramsey of Beaver Falls and Mrs. Dale Gwin of Bethel.

Mrs. L. C. Barnhart of Ellwood City, first vice-president, presided when women from various churches supporting missionaries told about the missionaries their churches are supporting. With "Around Our Horizon" as their subject, the following women spoke: Miss Sarah Houston, Beaver; Mrs. George Doutt, Beaver Falls; Mrs. Russell Tait, Highland; Mrs. Ralph Weide, Second, New Castle; Mrs. Plummer Gibson, Third, New Castle; Miss Mary Jane McKnight of East Brook, for Ellwood City; Mrs. Harry Fury, Wurtemburg; Miss Bertha Sturgeon, Camp Run.

Following the noontide prayer by Mrs. J. E. Lorimer, coffee and tea were served by women of the hostess church.

Mrs. E. Marcellus Nesbitt, second vice-president, of Beaver, presided at the afternoon session which opened with a quiet hour in charge of Mrs. J. F. Bovard, Second, New Castle. Mrs. Nesbitt presented Miss Esther Wilson of Egypt who spoke on "A Far Horizon," telling of her work in Egypt and illustrating her talk with blackboard drawings.

Following, the offertory prayer was given by Mrs. L. L. Bowman of Mt. Pleasant. The offering is to be used to buy a stove for an Indian Mission at Brunch, Okla. Afterwards, Miss Ruth Auld sang two selections, "High Flight," and "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains."

After Dr. Galbreath's address, Mrs. J. Wylie Craig of R. D. 7, Mahoningtown read letters from the Presbyterial's missionaries, Miss Margaret Murdock of Sargodha, India, and Miss Jeannette L. McCrory of Sterling, Kansas. The prayer and benediction were given by Rev. James Seaman, pastor of College Hill church.

The spring meeting of Beaver Valley Presbyterial is to be held the first Thursday of April in New Brighton United Presbyterian church. The nominating committee to report at the spring meeting includes Mrs. Elmer Rice, New Castle, Mrs. John Kyle of Bethel and Mrs. James Myers of Ambridge, chairman.

During the day, Mrs. C. R. Thayer of Third church, New Castle, gave the ratings of the different societies in Presbyterial.

If 3 per cent. more homes that are heated with oil or gas are completely weather-proofed this year, more than 44,250,000 gallons of fuel oil and more than a million tons of coal can be saved.

New Civil War In Labor Ranks May Be Staged

Return Of Machinists To A. F. Of L. May Cause New National Battle

By JACK VINCENT
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BOSTON, Oct. 8—The American Federation of Labor—now boasting of 6,564,141 dues-paying members with return of the strong machinists union—today was reported ready to gather up John L. Lewis and his 600,000 United Mine Workers in a move that may lead to a new civil war in the ranks of organized labor in America.

At the same time, it was learned as the AFL's 63rd annual convention entered its fifth day in Boston that the so-called non-operating Railroad Brotherhoods in the Federational hoped to crack the Little Steel formula and wage stabilization program of President Roosevelt's administration. It would mean substantial pay increases for more than 1,000,000 railroad workers who are members of AFL unions.

It appeared meanwhile that top AFL officials had definitely turned their backs on the Presidentially-sponsored peace conferences with the CIO instead, these leaders were said to believe that the AFL could win back unions one at a time. The CIO's Automobile Workers looked particularly attractive to these AFL leaders. It was first on their list.

Ranking Federation leaders expressed the view that the AFL now was big enough to dominate the labor situation in the United States, that they would not have to negotiate peace with CIO unions; but could dictate their own termsu, the Federation, in the report of its executive council, claimed that the CIO only had 2,225,000 dues-paying members.

Requiem Mass For Mrs. Rowan Saturday

Solemn high mass of requiem for Mrs. Mary P. Rowan, of 246 Arabella street, Pittsburgh, mother of the former Wampum pastor, Rev. Fr. Edmund F. Rowan will be celebrated Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, in St. Canice church. Her son, Father Edmund F. Rowan, will celebrate the mass.

Mrs. Rowan, died Wednesday in St. Joseph's hospital was a lifelong resident of Pittsburgh, but was well-known in the Wampum vicinity where her son, Rev. Fr. Edmund F. Rowan, was pastor of St. Monica's church.

In addition to her husband, Patrick F. Rowan, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Mary Grace Sullivan; the following sons: Rev. Fr. Edmund F. Rowan, Joseph T. Rowan, John R. Rowan, Sergeant Raymond Rowan and Corporal Clarence Rowan. A sister, Mrs. Alice Merkel and two brothers, Leo J. Devlin and Joseph P. Devlin, survive

ALARM CLOCK THIEF

ST. LOUIS.—(INS)—Cornelius C. Moll of St. Louis reported to police that a burglar had carried off his alarm clock causing him to oversleep forty minutes, stolen several dollars from his trousers and two purses, drunk a bottle of milk, and eaten food he and his wife were to have had for breakfast.

WHO IS NOMINATED?

An examination of the Democratic vote for nomination as school director reveals the fact that there is some question as to who gets the nominations. Two of the candidates whose names are written in have a nomination without any question, A. C. Hyde and Howard L. Reynolds. In the case of Daniel B. Woolcock and Charles A. Brookover there is a question.

As "Daniel B. Woolcock" 15 names were written in. As Dan Woolcock 16 names were written in. As "Woolcock" a number of other votes were written in. It would appear that Mr. Woolcock had received the nomination, but in order to get it he must go through a court formality. Charles A. Brookover received 20 votes under his own name and a few written as Brookover. On the face of the returns between Charles A. Brookover and Daniel B. Woolcock, Brookover has the edge. In the cumulative vote, providing Mr. Woolcock takes the necessary steps, he has the nomination.

CASES FILED

The following cases have been filed with the prothonotary and clerk of courts for trial.

Josephine Miksza, asks a divorce from Maciej Miksz of New Castle charging cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities to person. They were married January 28, 1933 in New Castle.

John Brinsky files three mechanics' liens. The first is against Jay R. Wells and Robert C. Sefton, trading as Welton Construction Co., and with notice to Thomas J. McNeill in the amount of $376.42.

The second suit is against the same contractors with notice to Owen R. Treharne, John L. Shiever and Gladys K. Shiever, in the amount of $412.10.

The third suit is against the same contractors with notice to Wayne N. Shiever and Elizabeth E. Shiever.

Harry Leroy Krause of RD 4 New Castle asks a divorce from Mina Elaine Krause upon the charges of cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities to person. They were married November 18, 1941 in New Castle. A guard ad litem is asked for the respondent as she is 18 years of age.

De Etta McCurdy of New Wilmington asks a divorce from John McCurdy of Portersville upon the grounds of indignities to person. They were married October 18, 1920, in New Castle.

Victor John Miller of New Castle asks a divorce from Celia Margaret Miller upon the grounds of cruel and barbarous treatment and desertion. They were married October 10, 1941, in New Castle.

CANDIDATES' EXPENSES

The following expenditures of candidates in the recent primary election have been filed. W. A. Moore, candidate for the Republican nomination for city treasurer, $391.01. John A. Edgar, candidate for the Republican nomination for prothonotary of courts, $126.15. Peter C. Rupp, candidate for the Republican nomination for constable of the second ward, less than $50. Thomas M. Hamilton, candidate for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner, less than $50.

BEAVER TWP.

Friends here have received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ida Marcia Hervey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Hervey, Erie, to Owen Hadlock Grubbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grubbs, of Fairview, Erie county, Pa., on Thursday, September 23, 1943, at Erie. The bridegroom has been in the armed service the past two years with the U. S. Coast Guard. The C. H. Grubbs family were former residents of Little Beaver township.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Glover, now of Racine, former residents for a few years in Big Beaver township, announce the marriage of their daughter, Betty, to John Berton McGeorge, son of Mrs. Elizabeth McGeorge, of New Galilee, Thursday evening, September 30, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Martin, College Hill, Beaver Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wright and children, of West View, Pittsburgh, have moved to Colorado, where they plan to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Wright were former residents of this community.

William A. Scott, age 84 years, died Tuesday night in a Pittsburgh hospital, following a short illness. Mr. Scott was born and reared at the old Scott homestead in Little Beaver township, Lawrence county. Over 30 years he was a mail carrier in the city of Pittsburgh. He is survived by his widow, a son, of Tampa, Fla., a daughter and three grandchildren. W. Alex Scott, of Little Beaver township, is a nephew. Funeral services will be at the residence in Beaver, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the Little Beaver cemetery, Lawrence county.

Big Beaver Grange Ladies club will meet on Wednesday afternoon, October 13, instead of Tuesday afternoon, the regular date for meeting. This will be the last meeting in the present club year.

Ronald L. Gilkey is enjoying a few days leave from Navy Seabee Training camp, Camp Peary, Williamsburg, Va., at home of his father, Loyal Gilkey, and family, and other relatives and friends here.

Big Beaver Grange observed booster night at their regular meeting on Tuesday evening, when an appropriate program was presented under direction of the lecturer, Miss Marie Beatty. J Audley Boak, past state grange master, was the guest speaker. A social time was enjoyed by the members and their guests at close of the grange meeting and program. John Scott, master of the grange, presided.

Funeral services were held in the White R. P. church here Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Mary McChesney Harrison, lifetime member of this church, who passed away early Monday morning.

WOODEN FLAG

MILFORD, Mass. — Here's one American flag that won't get tattered by wind or rain. It is a 12-foot banner made of wood and erected on a pedestal in a vacant lot.

The flag, which is a replica of the original American flag, with 13 stars and 13 stripes, was made by Attilio G. Trettel, a Milford carpenter. It took him two weeks to complete it.

FLAX MENACE

OREGON CITY, Ore.—(INS)—The strawberry fruit worm was discovered a new delicacy . . . Oregon flax. This sweet-tooth is greatly reducing flax quality, growers report, by stunting the growth of the main stalk. Resulting stocks are short and fibers low grade.

So far no adequate control method has been found. Dusting with present equipment would ruin more crops by knocking it down. Rotating from flax would do little good, the county agent reports, since the pest has a taste for at least 29 other common plants.

Republicans Plan Rally October 18

Superior Court Judge Claude T. Reno To Speak At "Old Time" Rally

Republicans of Lawrence county will stage an old time rally Monday night, October 18 in the Arena as a part of the November election campaign. Superior Court Judge Claude T. Reno will speak. This was decided upon Thursday night in The Castleton hotel when a meeting of the county committee, a number of other workers, and the candidates was held. Captain Roger W. Rcland, chairman of the county committee presided.

For the meeting, the ballroom of the hotel was packed. About two hundred were seated and a score or more had to stand. Chairman Rowland said that while there were few contests at the polls in November, it was necessary to turn out a vote, not alone to insure victory for the few who did not win nominations upon the two major party tickets, but also as a show of strength.

Judge Reno is the Republican candidate for the Superior Court and Chairman Rowland said he was available for a meeting in New Castle if the committee felt it was the proper thing to stage a rally. Former State Senator George T. Weingartner said he had served in the General Assembly with Judge Reno many years ago, that he knew him as a capable attorney and a forceful speaker. He moved that the rally be held on October 18 and Judge Reno be invited to come. The motion was carried unanimously.

Committees will be appointed shortly to arrange details for the rally.

IN U. S. ARMED SERVICE

(War Censorship Regulations Limit Information Allowed in This Column)

Private Harry Atlas has returned to Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky, after spending a ten days furlough at the home of Mrs. McMullen, of 714 East Main street. He is attached to headquarters company of the Engineers Corps.

Pfc. William James Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sweet of 1004 North Beaver street, has arrived here from Fort Benning, Ga., for a furlough. Pfc. Sweet, a paratrooper in the U. S. Army, is recuperating from a broken leg sustained in a jump he made recently.

Naval Aviation Cadet James S. Moses, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Moses, of Bessemer, who has been located at Westminster college, for the past two months, has been transferred to Chapel Hill, N. C., for a three months pre-flight training period.

Cpl. Donald E. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson, of Bessemer, has been transferred from Miami Beach, Fla., to Mitchell Field, Staten Island, N. Y., with the U. S. Air Corps.

Louis Mastrangelo, stationed at Camp Campbell, Ky., has been promoted from private first class to corporal, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mastrangelo, of 22 East Home street.

Pvt. Wilbur J. Robinson has been transferred from Camp Barkley, Tex., to Camp Reynolds.

Pvt. Porter T. Smith has been transferred from Ft. Meade to New Orleans, La., according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Pearl Smith, 819 Bonzo street.

Jack Leone, 1326 Barbour Place, has received word from his son, Technician Fifth Grade John Leone, that he has arrived safely in England.

Pvt. Arthur A. Johnson has been transferred from Fort Eustis, Va., to Fort Bliss, Texas, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Alex Johnson, 1314 Pennsylvania avenue.

Fireman 1-c Robert E. Heckathorne of the navy is on furlough and visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Heckathorne, 311½ South Jefferson street.

P. F. C. Robert Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Fox, of Spruce street, who was recently transferred from Camp Barkeley, Texas, to Fort Sill, Okla., has been promoted to corporal.

William W. Pattison seaman 2-c, is spending a week's leave at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jane A. Pattison of 208 W. Grant street. His wife and baby are also guests at the Pattison home.

Cpl. Tech. Aljanon Jett, Washington, D. C., is spending a few days with Cpl. and Mrs. Joseph Sobczak, Cascade street.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer J. Houck, East New Castle, received word from their son, William of the U. S. Marines, stationed at Camp Lejeune, New River, N. C., that he graduated with high honors from the motor truck school, and has been promoted to corporal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pagley, Canyon street, received word from their son, Pfc. Tony C. Pagley, who was wounded in action somewhere in the Southwest Pacific, that he is confined in a general hospital, and is doing nicely, and he would like to be remembered to all his friends back home.

Lt. Edwin Hewitt, who received his wings and bars at Moody Field, Valdosta, Ga., last Friday, is spending a ten-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Hewitt, of Lincoln avenue. Lt. Hewitt has been assigned to Harvard University, and will go there at the expiration of his stay.

Mrs. Jack Hitchen, 417 Waldo street, has received word that her husband, Sgt. Hitchen, has been transferred from A. P. Hill Camp, Va., to Camp Cody, Wis.

Seaman 2-c Tony Joe Filipone, stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, is spending a nine-day leave with his wife of 1012 Lorain avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reynolds, of McClelland avenue, have received word that their son, Aviation Cadet Edward Reynolds, Jr., has been classified as pilot, and has been sent to Maxwell Field, Alabama, for pre-flight training.

Headquarters ninth naval district, Great Lakes, Ill. states that Donald V. Potter of 922 Harrison street has been graduated from recruit training with highest honors in his company at U. S. naval training station there. Donald is now on leave for about a week, visiting with his wife, son Donald Tim, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Potter and family of 1033 East Washington street. Don is a graduate of New Castle high school.

Pvt. Joseph Telesz who was previously stationed at Camp Pickett, Va., is now transfered to Camp Grant, Ill.

Sergt. T. L. Trodden, accompanied by his wife, is home from Camp Bowie, Texas, for a furlough visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Trodden, 108 E. Laurel avenue.

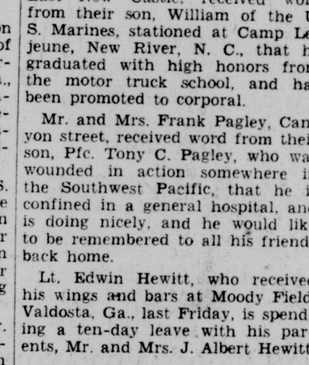

Word comes from Carlisle Barracks that First Lieutenant Norman Lewis, 212 East Long avenue, Medical Corps, graduated October 7 from medical field service school there, and is now qualified for field service with the troops. The course taught him the military knowledge necessary for him to be an efficient medical department officer, carrying out medical preventative measures, and caring for the sick and wounded and under war conditions. Lieut. Lewis received his M. D. degree at Western Reserve university.

Aviation Cadet Milton J. Balog has been awarded a diploma at the Ladwick School of Aeronautics at Lakeland, Florida; having successfully completed the elementary flying and ground school courses. Cadet Balog recently led five planes in cross-country flight having the sole responsibility of navigating and following the course. He has been transferred to the Cochran Army Air Field, Macon, Georgia for further training as pilot.

Port Of Naples Being Restored

American Seabees Speed Repair Of Damaged Harbor For Allied Use

NAZIS PLUNDER ROME IS REPORT

By CAPT. JOHN H. CRAIGE
Written Especially For International News Service

As Nazis plunder and sabotage Rome, American Seabees work with speed and dexterity to put the great Italian port of Naples into condition so that a mighty allied army in the Italian peninsula can be supplied and kept in fighting condition. The Seabees are among the greatest engineering troops in the world. They possess many mechanical and technical devices that can work apparent engineering miracles in the winking of an eye.

The greatest gain of the Italian campaign thus far is Naples. This great harbor town with its 22 miles of wharves and quays is capable of supplying and provisioning an army of a million men, more than the allies need for their campaign to win the Italian boot. Hitherto allied forces have been supplied and provisioned from make-shift harbors and from the beach, with huge landing barges running their prows up on the sand and discharging their cargoes.

Can Send Big Guns

From this time on it will be possible to send big guns, heavy tanks and supplies of all kinds via the cranes and derricks of one of Europe's greatest ports, which will hoist them out of the vessels in which they arrive and set them up on the concrete run-ways, ready to rumble off to battle as soon as their tanks are filled with gasoline and oil.

According to dispatches, Naples has been pretty thoroughly wrecked by Field Marshal Albert Kesselring's Nazi forces as they retreated to the north. These demolitions are likely to reduce the efficiency of the port for a long time to come. But is is not probable that the quays themselves and the deep-water channels will stay blocked for long.

Restore Ports

After the allied victory in Tunisia the port of Tunis, extensively dynamited by the Nazis, was put back into service within two weeks. Bizerte, even more systematically wrecked by allied bombers, was restored to usefulness within ten days. Allied engineering authorities have estimated that within eight days approximately 40 per cent of Naple's port facilities can be put back into service, with the remaining 60 per cent expected to be restored within three months.

Once Naples is back in commission, Foggia will come in for a lot of hard work and reconstruction.

Militairy airports for strategic bombing need gasoline and oil by the millions of gallons and TNT by the thousands of tons. Foggia, with its central location, would seem to be just what the doctor ordered to supplement the bombing of continental Germany from British bases. But it will take many days of hard work before it can mantain a powerful bombing force in day-in and day-out operation.

Undoubtedly Foggia will be supplied via Naples, about 70 miles to the west. A double-track railroad connects the two Italian cities, but a pipe-line to Naples and another railroad probably will have to be constructed before Foggia can take care of the great demands for supplies which will probably arise with the strategic bombing of Bavaria and Austria.

Statements and opinions herein are private to the writer and are not to be construed as reflecting the views of the navy department.

UNCOVER OLD URN

STOCKHOLM — (INS)—A small urn of clay, estimated by scientists to be more than 3,700 years old, has just been found during excavation in an ancient grave in the southern Swedish province of Skane. Despite its age the relic was unchipped and in perfect shape.

Seek Solution Of Brutal Murder Of WAC Lieutenant

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 8.—(INS)—Army and police authorities today questioned all known acquaintances of 2nd Lieut. Naomi Kathleen Cheney, pretty 25-year-old WAC., seeking a solution to her brutal murder, the second in the Women's Army Corps in less than six weeks.

Investigators said they had developed no worthwhile clue since Lieut. Cheney's body was discovered Tuesday in a thicket about 50 feet from a highway.

Still unsolved today was the murder of WAC Corp. Maoma L. Ridings who was killed in a room at the Claypool hotel in Indianapolis Aug. 28.

WOMEN FIRE WATCHERS

PORTLAND, Ore.—Paul Bunyan would be shocked, and only after someone had pointed out the severe manpower shortage would the fabulous logger understand why two hundred and forty-six women are filling forest fire protection positions in Oregon and Washington national forests.

Testifies About Extortion Work

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Willie Bioff told today how operators of large motion picture theatre chains in Chicago were forced to pay $100,000 under threats from the gangster-dominated union of theatrical stage employes.

Testifying in federal court at the trial of eight men charged with extortion of more than a million dollars from the motion picture industry, the ex-west coast head of the union, told Judge John Bright:

"You see, judge, if they wouldn't pay we'd give them lots of trouble. We'd put them out of business and I mean out."

Bioff, now serving a prison sentence for extortion, beamed good-naturedly at the sullen defendants, as he related his dealings with Jack Miller, labor representative for the Chicago exhibitors. They took place in 1935, he said, shortly after his ex-chief, George E. Browne, was elected president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes, with the "assistance" of underworld leaders.

Bioff said he told Miller, exhibitors in the Balaban theatres would have to put two operators in each booth. When Miller retorted that this would cost $500,000 a year, the witness suggested a "deal," and they finally agreed on $60,000, he said. Representatives of Warner Brothers had to pay $30,000 and a smaller chain paid $10,000, the witness said.

THIRD SON JOINS

GROVE CITY, Oct. 8.—The third son of President Weir C. Ketler of Grove City college, and Mrs. Ketler, entered the armed forces when Richard was inducted into the Navy and started training at Newport, R. I. Last week, David was commissioned a lieutenant in the Marine Corps at Quantico, Va. The eldest brother, Captain George Ketler, U. S. Marine Corps, is in the South Pacific and is a veteran of the Guadalcanal fighting.

OVER EIGHTEEN BILLION TOTAL IN BOND DRIVE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Treasury Secretary Morgenthau disclosed Thursday that the third war loan drive's $5,000,000,000 quota for individuals "is definitely in the bag—and more."

At the same time, Morgenthau said the bond drive will be extended to October 16 because some of the large industrial firms have not yet reported their sales of "E" bonds to the Federal Reserve banks.

Already, $18,000,000,000 has been raised by the drive plus and additional $3,000,000,000 borrowed by the banks.

New Porcelain Protects Radio On U. S. Bombers

DERRY, Pa., Oct. 8.—(INS)—A new porcelain, tough enough to withstand the rigors of high altitude flying, now protects the radio systems of American bombers and fighter planes.

Prestite, a mixture of clay, feldspar and flint, first developed by Westinghouse for peacetime use in insulators for electrical power lines and power handling apparatus, is being produced for installation in Uncle Sam's wareplanes and for use as insulators in battleships and tanks.

Among the prestite parts described by W. F. Bailey, manager of the Westinghouse porcelain department, are a tiny, pencil-shaped bushing which seals radio transformers against trouble-causing moisture and a watch-sized cylindrical base which protects aircraft radio tubes from violation temperature changes.

A specially-designed porcelain insulator which guards vital radio condensers against electrical flashovers was developed to meet the rigorous conditions which radio condensers undergo in high altitude flying. When planes climb to 30,000 feet or over, Bailey explained, the rarefied air makes it easier for electricity to flash over insulators and often renders radio equipment useless.

The new prestite piece, which carries wires to oil-filled condensers reduces the danger of flashover to a minimum and cuts down on the leagage of power.

New Warning On Heavy Sacrifices To Come In War

BALBOA, Panama Canal Zone, Oct. 8.—(INS)—A renewed warning that the United States still faces its heaviest sacrifices if the war is to be fought to a conclusion which will ensure a lasting peace was sounded Thursday by Navy Secretary Frank Knox.

Arriving in the Canal Zone for an inspection trip following his tour of the European theater's active fronts, Knox said bluntly:

"Our war is well started and we have the initiative but we must face the fact that our greatest sacrifices in men and treasure are ahead. The war must be carried ahead to the bitter end, bringing the unconditional surrender of the Japanese and Germans, unless we want to face another war in the next 20 years."

Indict Seven On Plotting To Betray Nation

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 8—(INS)—Seven naturalized Americans of German birth were under indictment Thursday for conspiring to transmit military information to the Reich prior to Perl Harbor.

Two of the men named in a sealed indictment return late Wednesday by the federal grand jury in Newark are now in the army.

The charge accused the men of plotting to send vital defense secrets to Germany by photographs, maps and code. It was alleged that their activities covered a period from April 1, 1939 to December 6, 1941.

Those named in the indictment included Fritz Schroeder, 43, ex-national leader of the German-American Vocational League.

The seven face possible maximum sentences of 20 years on espionage charges.

NEWS AND VIEWS AT CAPITAL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 8.—Wartime material shortages permitted the highway department to construct only 25 miles of roads during the first seven months of this year... Secretary John U. Shroyer said that existing contracts for highway construction are valued at $10,650,000 ...In 1941 the department completed approximately 189 miles of new highway as compared with 102 miles last year...Shroyer said that work on half of the dozen bridges placed under contract prior to federal limitations on construction had been abandoned while priority regulations made it improbably that three new structures would be completed before the end of the year.

The Pennsylvania Home Rule Association has thrown its support behind a state constitutional amendment prohibiting the diversion of highway funds into other channels...The association stated it was imperative that sufficient funds be available in the postwar period for a huge road improvement program to repair wartime damage... The amendment was passed by the 1943 legislature but must be approved by the general assembly in 1945 and then submitted to the electorate...Similar legislation failed in previous years...Twenty-seven states now forbid the diversion of road funds...The first state to outlaw this practice was Minnesota in 1920.

The so-called "big inch" oil pipeline, which lances across southern Pennsylvania and ends at Phoenixville, fortunately disturbed only seven state game preserves during construction, according to the state game commission...The preserves are located in Bedford, Fayette, Fulton and Somerset counties... Approximately six and three-quarter miles of line were constructed through state lands in the path of the "big inch" without materially disturbing conservation efforts... Merchantable timber removed from the right of way remained the property of the commission and was sold at auction:..Construction of a companion line will be undertaken soon on the same right of way...The commission estimated that the pipe line replaces 21,000 tank cars daily.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national director of selective service, has been criticized occasionally for not defining the draft future for millions of registrants, particularly fathers...The record reveals, however, that on September 5, 1942, Hershey said that army requirements would make it necessary to draft fathers "in the last quarter of 1943"...By lowering the draft age to 18, selective service was able to induct more than a million youths and stave off a wholesale father draft until this winter.

Prisoners and employes in the five state prisons have turned $64,168 into war bonds, the department of welfare reveals...The amount does not include the maturity value of the bonds nor does it cover additional pledges.

Night air passenger service will soon be started in Argentina.

WEAK FROM KIDNEY AGONY

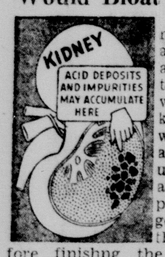

Mr. Edwin Carmack, 3146 Kelvin St., Pittsburgh, Stated He Also Was Constipated And Had Little Appetite—Began Getting Relief Before Finishing First Bottle Of Herba-Lex.

MR. EDWIN CARMACK

Statements such as Mr. Carmack's—telling of quick, surprising relief from digestive troubles by taking Herba-Lex—have been pouring in. Such statements are usual—not uncommon . . . because Herba-Lex is scientifically compounded to relieve faulty digestion and elimination and banish misery. Read what Mr. Carmack says:

Would Bloat After Meals

"I had pains in my back and legs and couldn't sleep at night. I was told these pains were due to my kidneys. I also was constipated and would bloat up after eating and have gas pains. I began getting relief from these miseries before finishng the first bottle of Herba-Lex. I am now on my third bottle and beginning to feel like myself again. I have a better appetite, more energy and the pains have practically disappeared. Anyone suffering as I did should take Herba-Lex."

Herba-Lex Is 18 Medicines

Herba-Lex is actually 18 medicines in one because it contains natural juices from 18 of Nature's herbs, roots and barks. Each ingredient is of benefit in toning up an out-of-order or rundown system. The first effect of Herba-Lex is to stop gas pains, belching and to sweeten the stomach. Next, it goes pleasantly to work to clear away old, sour bile, intestinal impurities, and to relieve constipation. The flushing away of these gases and poisons from the liver, and stagnant wastes from the kidneys, results in the most blessed relief imaginable!

If you can't eat or enjoy food, try Herba-Lex. If you have to rise at night, due to sluggish kidney action, try Herba-Lex. If you have arm, leg or back pains, try Herba-Lex. See if it doesn't help you more than any medicine you have ever seen or heard of before.

The HERBA-LEX Man is now at Pay Less Cut Rate. There he daily explains the virtues of this splendid medicine to scores of people. See and talk with him and tell him your troubles, and have him show you why Herba-Lex is giving such amazing relief to suffering men and women.

Seek Clothing For Greek Relief

New Castle Chapter To Join Campaign To Seek Warm Garments

COLLECTION STATIONS TO BE DESIGNATED

These mornings bring to mind the fact that winter isn't far off. Prudent housewives have already taken the woolen blankets out of the cedar chest, the warm clothing for the youngsters is getting a going over, and in all too short a time it is going to be cold.

It is going to be cold in Greece this winter too. Bitter cold. But there won't be many woolen blankets to keep little tots warm at night, few if any warm overcoats, or heavy underwear to shield them from the wintry blasts. Adults will be wearing tattered summer clothing and on their feet will be nondescript shoes. For the Germans have stripped Greece of every vestige of heavy clothing they could find. And winter doesn't recognize friend or foe, belligerent or non-belligerent.

They Need Help

Help is needed to clothe the Greek people. Some food and medicines have found their way into the country by Danish ships but clothing hasn't gotten in yet. The invasion of Greece is likely within a short time it is felt and when it comes, the way will be clear to send clothing in.

The Greek War Relief Association is endeavoring to collect twenty millions of second hand garments for the people of Greece. The New Castle chapter is a part of the national organization and under the leadership of Speer Marousis, an effort will be made in New Castle between October 11th and 25th to collect not less than 28,000 garments. Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson of the Bundles from New Castle group endorses the drive, the United War Fund authorities endorse it, the Greater New Castle Association and the American Red Cross have given it their unqualified endorsement. All that is needed is to persuade New Castle people to clean out their clothes closets and turn over discarded clothing, blankets, towels, sheets, shoes, pillow slips, underwear, especially the old fashioned "longies".

Collection Stations

Collection stations will be established where the clothing can be left. From there they will be picked up by trucks. This is a campaign that won't cost anybody a dime. It will cost only a little time and the gift of garments no longer used. These garments will go to help a distressed and discouraged people.

In speaking of the clothing collection project, Mr. Marousis stressed that without warm clothing the chance of survival for the hunger-exhausted Greeks would be sharply lowered. Their land economically disrupted and cut off from imports, Greeks have been unable to replace outworn garments since enemy occupation. In all of Greece their is scarcely a clothing store open. Greek women cannot find material or thread to mend garments. Many families have sold their clothing on the black market, literally for a crust of bread. Sometimes bandages serve as shoes. Even when soap can be secured, there is no change of clothing to wear while the garments are being washed. Because it is impossible to keep children clean, the death toll of shifting malaria, typhoid and dysentary epidemics remain perilously high. Last year countless Greek youngsters clad in thin cotton garments died on Athen's streets, victims of winter weather, their starved bodies had no power to resist.

FIRST LIBRARY STORY HOUR

Resuming the custom of Thursday afternoon story hours for school children Miss Alice Joyce, junior librarian, on Thursday went to North street school building to hold story hour after school.

Other years story hours have been held at the library but this year because the OCD occupied the assembly room in the library and because the pupils of North street school asked for a story hour, the experiment of having the librarian go to the school is being made.

SAYS COLOR OF SKIN CAN NOW BE CHANGED

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Skin of any color can be turned white today through use of a newly-discovered chemical.

Dr. Louis Schwartz, medical director of the U. S. Public Health Service, described the process at the 93d annual convention of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Schwartz said the discovery was made while studying a skin disorder among Negroes employed in a leather plant. Rubber gloves treated with an anti-oxident turned the workers' hands white. The health official said experimentation showed the change lasts from six months to six years.

IN ANCESTOR'S FOOTSTEPS

ST. LOUIS.—(INS)—Pfc. Ulysses S. Grant, a direct descendant of the Civil War general, is a recent arrival at his ancestor's old stamping ground, Jefferson Barracks, now a basic training center of the Army Air Force Technical Training Command, located near St. Louis. Pvt. Grant started his military career in April, 1941. After three months in the infantry he transferred to the Army Air Corps and was assigned to duty at Stockton Field, Calif., before being transferred to Jefferson Barracks.

Fake Gas Ration Coupons Used

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Counterfeit gasoline ration stamps which have flooded the Philadelphia area today were believed to have become mixed with the legal supply distributer by ration boards.

An official of one distributing firm which services several hundred stations disclosed yesterday that in the past month fake coupons worth 500,000 gallons had been turned in. He said most of the customers maintained that the counterfeits had been issued by the ration boards.

An executive of another large distributor said a survey of 27 service stations indicated about one percent of the A stamps now in circulation were counterfeits. The survey also showed that recently the same stations accepted fake coupons with a gasoline value of 20,000 gallons.

RATIONING CHANGE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Rationing restrictions on eligibility for used passenger tires were modified by the OPA today to permit motorists who have been ineligible for tires to get grade III tires if they have obtained a "special" gas ration for any purpose except furlough travel.

Previously no "A" book holder could establish eligibility for tires unless he used his car occupationally. This meant that in the east all motorists with "A" books only were ineligible for tires since the "A" book in that area is entirely non-occupational

Allowances Boost For Dependents To Receive Approval

House Leaders Give 'Green Light' To Legislation Providing Increase

By WILLIAM THEIS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—House leaders gave the green light today to legislation boosting monthly allowances to servicemen's dependents, confident they could hold the bill within "reasonable limits" when it reaches the floor next Wednesday.

Twenty-four hours after its approval by the House Military Affairs committee, the bill increasing payments for a wife and two children from the present $72 to $95 was brought before the rules committee for clearance.

Although sponsors of CIO-backed higher scales promised to "make a fight" for their demands, Chairman May (D) Ky., said the military committee would avoid "gag" rule procedure and offer the bill subject to amendment.

Raises Senate Amounts

The bill as reported raises amounts fixed originally by the senate but falls slightly below the scale voted by that body this week when it added allowances to the Bailey-Clark deferment bill. It provides $50 for a wife, $75 is she has one child, $95 if two children and $15 for each additional child. The new senate version proposes $80 for a wife and one child and $20 for each additional child.

Rep. Sadowski (D) Mich. indicated that something close to the House committee figures might result. Sponsor of the CIO bill, Sadowski announced he would "compromise" and accept the Senate scale if necessary. His measure asks $55 for a wife, $25 for the first child and $30 for each additional offspring.

House majority leader McCormack (D) Mass., set the pace for floor consideration of the subject by scheduling it for action next Wednesday. Chairman Sabath (D) Ill., of the rules committee promptly invited May to appear in behalf of the necessary rule today.

Meanwhile, the House Military committee planned to take up the Bailey-Clark deferment bill next Tuesday. May indicated it would be stripped of its allowance amendment and be considered solely as an amendment to the selective service act. The Bailey-Clark bill tightens up occupational deferments for both the government and industry.

St. Vitus Sodality Planning For Dance

Feast Of Christ King To Be Observed With Holy Hour On October 31

October 23, is the date chosen by the Sodality of Our Lady, St. Vitus church for their dance to be held in the Catholic Center, Beaver street, with soldiers to be invited as guests. Helen Mastrangelo is chairman.

These plans made at the regular Sodality meeting, Thursday evening in the convent hall, Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso opened with prayer.

The Eucharistic committee reported that the Sodality presented a spiritual bouquet for The Most Rev. Hugh C. Boyle, Bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese.

Antoinette Call spoke on the Feast of Christ the King, and the announcement was made the group will have a holy hour from 6 to 7 o'clock, on the feast day, October 31, in St. Vitus church.

Indulgences to be gained by reciting the rosary was explained by Albina Chirumbolo, of Our Lady's committee, and a brief talk on the Bible was given by Bernice Dellaverson, of the Apostolic committee.

A hallowe'en party is being planned by the social committee for this month. Frances T. Corio extended an invitation for the group to attend the masquerade sponsored by the Lawrence County Union of Sodalities, on Sunday, October 24. Another invitation was extended to attend an illustrated lecture on the "Sacrifice of the Holy Mass," to be held at 3 p. m., Sunday, October 17, in the Catholic Center, sponsored by St. Mary's Sodality.

Father Inteso congratulated the girls on the communion attendance for the month, and he welcomed the new members. He also gave a brief meditation on Our Lady of the Rosary, for the month of October.

An entertaining program was presented in the form of a radio program, the "Do Or Die Program," with the following Soladists taking part in the comedy: Antoinette Elisco, Rose Anzalone, Madeline Venditto, Mary Lucidore, Edith DePolis, Helen Mastrangelo and Margaret Naples.

A treat was offered to the girls by Glorita Cioffi, who is leaving the sodality, following her marriage on October 21. On November 7, the girls will receive Holy Communion in a body at mass, and November 11, is the next meeting.

Beagle Trials To Be Held Sunday

Despite Pledge, Many Strikes In U.S. During War

Commander Of Legion Tells A. F. Of L. Of 1855 Strikes In Six Months

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Despite labor's no-strike pledge, there were 1,855 strikes in the United States, involving 1,974,00 workers, during the first six months of 1943, Warren H. Atherton, national commander of the American Legion, told the A.F.L. convention today.

"Any man who strikes today is impeding the war effort," he declared. "Any man who strikes today is giving the great American institution of labor a black eye."

Atherton assured the delegates that the Legion has never attacked union labor and "is in sympathy with its purpose to uplift the American worker."

"In recent months, someone has tried to split our home front by 'sicking' a fight between union labor and the American Legion," Atherton continued. "That fight will never happen because workers and veterans both want to win the war . . ."

Quoting the strike figures for the first six months of the year, he said these included coal strikes, the strikes of street-car employes and trainmen in the plane factory and ship-building districts of Los Angeles, and this week's milk strike in New York.

The Legion's recently elected commander told the convention his organization was asking immediate adoption of the Austin-Wadsworth bill "to put every man, woman and child in the service of our country." He said the Legion also endorsed universal military training, special training for disabled veterans, and post-war planning and collaboration between nations.

One penalty of allowing auto engine oil to stay in the crankcase long enough to thin out is that carbon will start to accumulate.

Armour Ideas Make the Most of Meat

Quick and Thrifty—Star Lamb Grill!

Nearly everyone likes lamb, so there's no reason why you shouldn't have it often these days. For even though loin chops are harder to get, you can make a grand meal with lamb shoulder chops! They're thriftier, too . . . in price and in points!

Star Lamb Grill is an easy-to-fix lamb feast that's sure to click. It's a big plate of tasty, juicy Star Lamb Shoulder Chops flanked by tender whole cooked carrots and colorful broiled tomato halves.

You place 4 Star Lamb Shoulder Chops on your broiler rack with 2 halved tomatoes that have been topped with bread crumbs mixed with melted butter and seasoned. We recommend Armour's Star Lamb Shoulder Chops because it's young lamb . . . tender and mildly flavored.

Put the rack 4 inches under heating unit and broil 6-7 minutes. Season chops and turn. At the same time add 8 small whole carrots, already cooked. Brush with melted drippings. Broil chops, carrots and tomatoes another 6-7 minutes. Remove from broiler . . . it's a savory lamb feast for 4 persons.

Gets Word From Brother Living In Arkadia, Greece

Through the agency of the American Red Cross, Peter Brown, Washington street merchant has had news from his brother and family in Nestani, Province of Arkadia, Greece. A short note has been received reading "all perfectly well, very happy to hear from you, regards to George" (a brother in Somerset, O.). Gregorios Bahramis, wife and three sons. December, 26, 1942.

Late in 1942 Mr. Brown asked the Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross if the organization could get any word through to Greece to find out if Mr. Brown's brother Gregorios Bahramis and family were still alive. After considerable work the Red Cross made contact with Grecian authorities and received the word back that Mr. Brown's brother and family were well at the time the message was sent.

Further Cut In Newsprint Seen

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—A War Production Board official today left with Congress the warning that newspapers face further reductions in newsprint consumption next year unless pulpwood production problems are "ironed out".

Testifying before the Boren-Halleck sub-committee on newsprint, Harold Boeschenstein, director of production controls, WPB, asserted that the United States and Canada either must curtail the overall use of pulpwood in 1944 by 25 per cent or increase the anticipated production by the same percentage.

Rep. Lyle Boren (D) Okla., committee chairman, also pointed to further curtailment of newsprint in 1944, declaring that such action is "unavoidable".

Babson Sees Postwar Interest Rates Higher

By ROGER W. BABSON

Copyright—1943—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.

NEW YORK CITY, Oct. 8.—From the December, 1941, low in 19 cities of 2.40% as the average rate for top-notch commercial loans to bank customers, interest rates have been gradually creeping upward. In August, 1942, the average bank rate was 2.48%. By June of this year rates were up to 2.76%. Currently the bank rate for commercial loans is averaging 3%. Rates for prime commercial paper now average 3¼%.

Babson

These are up over the average for 1941 but unchanged from the average for 1942. I believe that after the war all interest rates will be higher.

Present Rates Too Low

Up to the time of the New Deal, economists considered the actual hard-earned savings of individuals as the primary source of capital. In the past, out of such accumulations were financed our railroads, public utilities and other great enterprises. The rate of interest depended upon the amount of such capital available at any given time and the faith of the owners thereof that it would be promptly paid back when due with money of equal value. In other words, upon the old law of supply and demand, we depended for interest rates. Now under our "managed currency" system the picture temporarily is changed.

Because of the large current supply of money rates for commercial bank loans, for commercial paper and the yields on short-term, high-grade bonds are absurdly low. Dollars are being multiplied very rapidly through the expansion of bank credits. But the rapid rise in the quantity of dollars has been at the expense of their intrinsic value. If the Federal Reserve authorities should change their policy and tighten the supply of money, we could have sharply rising interest rates. This may become necessary in order to attract investors' funds to government bonds and notes in any really substantial amount.

Are Economic Laws Changing?

Economic principles cannot always be depended upon to hold water consistently. Their course can be diverted to some extent by wars, legislation and perhaps by human nature. The old "quantity" theory of money is that increasing the amount of gold or silver money always causes higher commodity prices and or lower interest rates. The new conception of the "quantity" theory of money is as follows: Any increase in its quantity, however derived, will lower rates; also that all forms of new bank credits, although perhaps basically dangerous, can be a real source of capital. In other words, these quantitative professors believe that the money market may be manipulated so it is no longer necessary to wait for individuals to accumulate or save capital.

Both the old and amended money theories assume that the faith of the lenders will remain 100% and constant. Loss of faith by the lenders will offset the effects of more available money and credit. If lenders come to believe that the money which they are to get five or ten years hence in payment of their loans will be poorer money and will have less purchasing power, then these lenders will demand a higher rate to compensate for this risk. Fearing this "loss of faith" factor is the reason why I expect higher interest rates after the government takes off its control which some day it must do.

What Is Capital?

All of us have some capital. It may be represented by the clothes we wear or the stocks, bonds and real estate which we own. Capital is primarily derived from work or production. It may consist of factory buildings, machinery, raw materials, farm produce, barns or inventories. Examples are almost inexhaustible. The principal sources of capital are (1) consumers' thrift, (2) direct capitalization of the product of labor; (3) governmental thrift or taxation for capital purposes; and (4) new bank money or a deposit credit resulting from a loan.

The first three of the above-mentioned sources of capital are absolutely sound. I am not so sold on the fourth which is nothing more than borrowing. There is now too large an amount of borrowing or expanding bank credit against the purchase of government securities. The size of this is far above the amount of brokers' loans preceding the 1929 stock market crash. And all this credit is being secured at a ridiculously low interest rate. I wonder how long the Federal Reserve System can go on buying, for its member banks, government securities to the extent it has been doing and letting the banks expand their credits for this purpose.

Effect On Investors And Banks

As an inflation brake and to stop expanding bank credits, the Treasury Department is now endeavoring to get government bonds into the hands of individuals rather than into banks. But to do this they must ultimately pay higher rates of interest on government paper. If rates go up, investors' bond portfolios will shrink in value and there will be a general switching to equity stocks. This is another reason why I am bullish on the stock market and do not like high-priced, low-yield bonds.

Even a small rise in interest rates will help banks and their stockholders. Long-term, high-grade bonds held by banks will, of course, then slide off. However, rates for unsecured and for collateral loans, together with loans on real estate, should rise to swell the banks' gross income. Banks holding a large quantity of short-time investments in governments, municipals and commercial paper will be in the best position. Such banks can jump back into the corporate bond market later on and pick up some bargains in discount bonds. Banks holding large quantities of long-term bonds may take a licking.

Average human heart beats more than 2,250,000,000 times in a lifetime of 60 years.

NO MORE 'KINKS'

PITTSBURGH — (INS) — Dr. H. Mark, of Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, has discovered a way of ironing out 'kinks' in girlish legs.

Well, at least, the rayon stockings which grace girlish legs.

Dr. Mark, addressing the American Chemical Society's annual fall conference in Pittsburgh, disclosed he had perfected a process for doing away with excessive wrinkling of rayon garments so that they will "hang out" as rapidly as wool clothing.

MAMMOTH PROJECT

VANPORT, Ore. — (INS)—Maintaining the largest war housing project in the United States is more than a full time job. Vanport, between Portland, Ore., and Vancouver, Wash., now housing 35,000 will have a population of over 40,000 when all apartment units are rented. Its maintenance department numbers 630 full time employes, with an estimated budget for 1943 of $1,478,494.

When you open a can of pimentoes and cannot use all at the time, put the leftovers in a jelly glass and cover well with paraffin. They will last several weeks that way.

KING MIDAS DINNER ROLL-UP

2 cups sifted ENRICHED KING MIDAS FLOUR
¾ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 to 4 tablespoons shortening
½ to ¾ cup milk
2 cups cooked ground meat or corned beef

Sift together flour, salt, and baking powder. Cut or rub in shortening. Add milk to make a soft dough, stirring just enough to make ingredients hold together. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently for a half minute. Roll into a rectangular sheet ¼ inch thick. Spread well-seasoned meat on biscuit dough. Roll jelly-roll fashion and seal edge. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in moderately hot oven (425° F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot with Chili Sauce, Horseradish Sauce or Gravy. Yield: About 12 1-inch slices.

SOLDIERS WANT TO SEE SOME GIRLS

CHICAGO, Oct. 8. — (INS)— American troops overseas want pin-up girls, sure, but what they desire more than anything else is to see the girls in person.

This was the word brought to Chicago today by Gracie Fields, famous British actress who is just back from an eight-week tour of army bases in Europe and Africa.

"If Betty Grable went overseas, she'd stop the war," Gracie said. "The boys are dying for a look at a few pretty American girls. They'd mob Betty the minute she stepped off the plane."

Liquor Taxes Net Increase To State

HARRISBURG, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Taxes on liquor sales have netted the state $23,310,000 for the fiscal year ending May 31, an increase of $5,100,000 over the previous year.

Auditor General F. Clair Ross disclosed that Pennsylvania ranks second among 13 "monopoly" states reporting in alcoholic beverage tax receipts, Ohio being first with $23,905,000.

Ross reported that "Pennsylvania state stores restrict individual purchases to one bottle of whiskey, Scotch or gin, and one bottle of dry or sparkling wines, but rum sales are unlimited. Licensees are restricted to 60 per cent of their purchases made during a stated period in the previous year."

PUP QUITS PARKED CAR TO WAIT FOR ANOTHER

VANCOUVER, B. C. — (INS) — Most Vancouver street car passengers are accustomed to wartime rush-hour confusion, but not a brown and white setter pup.

The pup clambered into a car at the same time a particularly large group climbed aboard. The dog objected to the crowded conditions. A block later the car halted, the back door was opened, but the only passenger to alight (with definite canine grace) was the spotted dog.

State Liquor Laws Can't Be Applied To Federal Areas

HARRISBURG, Oct. 8.—(INS)—The liquor control board was advised by the state department of justice today that state liquor laws cannot be applied to areas in the commonwealth which have been ceded to the federal government.

These territories include the U. S. navy yard at Philadelphia, Middletown air depot and the Carlisle barracks military reservation. However, the law does apply to the Indiantown Gap military reservation because the federal government is only a lessee and full jurisdiction rests with the commonwealth.

The justice department opinion said that importers of liquor, licensed under the state liquor control act, and out-of-state dealers, may sell liquor direct to the ceded territories, but not to Indiantown Gap, and breweries, importing distributors and distributors fall into the same category with their beverages.

Health Talks

Liver is a very valuable kind of food.

It provides nourishment and also a large amount of minerals and vitamins.

Since people have found out that liver is so good, it has become scarce and costly.

Fifty years ago the butcher might give his customers a piece of liver for nothing. The price was low. It was not considered to be worth much.

Scientists studied the problem. They found that liver contains things which are very valuable in both health and sickness.

The different kinds of liver are about the same except in taste. Pick out the kind you like best. Eat as much as your pocket book will allow or as pour butcher will give you.

League Of Women Voters Organizes

Committee Named To Nominate Officers For New Political Organization

Women of various religious creeds and political affiliations, allied only by their enthusiasm for a better government, met to hear Mrs. R. Templeton Smith and Mrs. Kenneth Field of the State League of Women Voters tell of the work of the League. The meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. K. H. Beck, Boyles avenue.

Mrs. Smith asserted that there is appalling waste of tax money and gave some startling facts to substantiate her assertion. Mrs. Field warned that in postwar planning our resources must be evaluated before starting to rehabilitate needy peoples. She quoted figures proving that our supplies of essential materials are far from inexhaustible.

Both speakers pointed out that unless our wastefulness and government encroachment in industry is stopped by organized and unorganized public demand, we Americans may find ourselves without a real democracy to which our boys may return. "That which happened in Germany can happen here," said Mrs. Smith. "To have a democracy, we must all work at it."

To Start League

The group voted to start a League of Women voters in New Castle whose function it will be to urge and help each citizen do his duty as a citizen locally and in state and national affairs. A nominating committee to choose officers for the new League was chosen.

On the committee are Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine, Mrs. John E. Elliott, Mrs. L. F. Kohn, Miss Margaret Uhl, and Mrs. E. F. Henderson.

On Wednesday, October 27, at 2 p. m. in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium officers will be elected. Mrs. Kenneth Field will report on the doings of Congress, and it is hoped that some candidates may be present to tell of the relationship of their prospective offices to our community welfare. The meeting is open to all women interested.

St. Anthony Novena Will Start Tuesday

Solemn Novena Prepares For Feast Of Immaculate Conception, December 8

On Tuesday, October 12, the solemn fall novena in honor of St. Anthony will start in St. Vitus church, in preparation of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, on December 8.

This novena which will continue for nine Tuesdays, will also honor the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the two altars containing the shrines, are to be beautifully decorated with appropriate flowers, during the weeks of devotion.

Special favors and intentions are to be asked through the intercession of St. Anthony and the Blessed Mother, and it is expected that a great many are to attend for special protection for their loved ones in the service. At the present time there are 825 names on the honor roll which is prominently placed on the side altar, where devouts may pray for their safe return and for the victory of the nation.

Due to the large crowds that attend the solemn novenas each year, it is necessary to have two services each Tuesday evening. Rev. Fr Nicholas DeMita, pastor of the church, and Rev. Fr Albert M. Inteso, assistant, will conduct services, the first at 6:30 o'clock, and the second service at 8 o'clock. Short sermons will be given each Tuesday evening.

All persons making the novena are asked to start by receiving holy communion at the masses Tuesday morning to be celebrated at 7, 7:30 and 8 o'clock. Confessions will be heard before masses on Tuesday morning.

An appeal is made by Father DeMita to all mothers, to attend this fall solemn novena to St. Anthony, and to offer prayers for a speedy peace, and for the safe return of those in the service.

Lasting Peace Needs Cooperation Of Allied Nations

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Adlai E. Stevenson, special assistant to the secretary of navy, asserted today that lasting peace after World War II will depend on strong cooperation among the British, American and Chinese.

In a speech before the Chicago council of foreign relations, Stevenson urged the United States to keep its great fleet and advised Americans against unwarranted prejudice and distaste against Russia.

"When the was is over the United States and Great Britain will have unchallenged mastery of the seas and Russia will be the most powerful land force in the world," Stevenson said. "Together we can do everything. Apart—well, its unthinkable.

"But we won't be apart. Together with the enormous potential of an industrialized China, our collective force can and must insure the peace of the world.

The peace must be indivisable, Stevenson said, and the key is Russia.

"But what do the Russians want?" he asked, and then added: "My guess is that they want friendly relations just as much as we do."

TOWNS CAPTURED

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Yugoslavian patriots have captured the towns of Livno and Kupres, 45 miles east of Split (Spalato), while a Croatian corps has taken Varazdinske, Toplice and Ludbreg, the free Yugoslav government radio announced tonight.

A Bosnian corps captured the town of Tuzla on Oct. 1, the announcement said, killing 500 Germans, wounding 400 others and capturing 2,136.

BISHOP RESIGNS

CLEVELAND, Oct. 8—(INS)—Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker today resigned at the 54th triennial convention of the Protestant Episopal church as bishop of Virginia so he could continue as presiding bishop of the United States.

Bishop Tucker would have reached the retirement age of 70 next summer. However, the general convention of the church voted to raise the retirement age to 72, thus permitting Rt. Rev. Tucker to continue as presiding bishop another three years.

The convention also approved legislation relieving the presiding bishop of duties as head of a diocese. Bishop Tucker's resignation as head of the Virginia diocese conforms with the new rules and will allow him to continue as presiding bishop until the next triennial convention.

Revised 'Cane Lineup Faces Farrell Here Tonight

Unbeaten Teams Set; Over 10,000 Gallery Predicted

Liebendorfer Nominated For Quarterback Post; McKee Shifts To Left Half; McPeak Probable Left End Starter; Kickoff At 8 O'Clock; Steeler Sport Undefeated, Untied And Unscored Upon Record; Farrell Line Gigantic; Thrilling Game Forecast.

Scholastic football reaches the halfway mark here tonight with New Castle high's unbeaten but once tied 'Canes battling an undefeated, untied and unscored upon Farrell high aggregation under Taggart stadium's lights. The opening boot soars through the air at 8.

In crying need of backfield punch, Head Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh today announced that the starting lineup will be revised. Quarterback Dick McKee will call signals from a halfback position; Harry Liebendorfer has been nominated for the quarterback berth and "Bill" McPeak may be at the left end post by kickoff time.

With these changes, the 'Cane varsity will be comprised of:

McPeak or Lengyel and Newman, ends; Roussos and Sanfilippo, tackles; Joseph and Izzo, guards; Robert Preston, center; Liebendorfer, quarterback; Williams and McKee, halfbacks, and Lewis, center.

Besides gaining additional drive, Coach Bridenbaugh believes that the team has been strengthened defensively. Liebendorfer and McPeak boost the localites in height and weight.

McKee Punter

On defense, McKee will serve as safety man while Liebendorfer will slip into left guard, thus permitting Joseph to team up with Preston in the line backing task. McKee will continue to punt.

Bridenbaugh was a bit on the quiet side when queried about his offensive strategy.

"With a revised lineup, it's hard to say how the team will play. The offense may click and may not. So all I can say is wait and see," the mentor replied.

The locals, winners over Grove City, Beaver Falls and a strong Sharon high outfit, doesn't figure to be mauled around due to an exceptionally stubborn and talented line. Thus far, the front wall has played a predominant part in the triumphs, opening gaping holes for the backs.

Series to Date

1934—N. Castle	27	Farrell	0
1941—N. Castle	25	Farrell	7
1942—N. Castle	33	Farrell	12

Farrell, however, boasts of one of the most powerful lines in the history of the school. Tonight's tussle may be an up front skirmish worth seeing.

Use Double Wing

Offensively, Farrell, which has never beaten New Castle, will employ a clever modified double wing formation knitted by the highly respected Coach "Hank" Day. Instead of lining up the wingbacks behind the ends or thereabouts, Day has them pulled closer together. The man in motion is another feature of the Day attack.

Laterals, reverses, spinners and passes form the bulk of the Day double wing assault.

The Steelers thus far have won four straight decisions, ringing up 80 points. The Farrell goal line has yet to be dented.

Defeated by lopsided scores since the first meeting in 1934, Farrell is rated an excellent chance of toppling the 'Canes. The Steeler defense, as the season record will show, is airproof. Zicker, Basilone and Cwnes are three of the star backs.

Lion Cross-Country Coach Dons Spikes, Trains With Squad

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 8.—George Harvey, Penn State's new hill-and-dale coach, practices what he preaches on the cross-country course.

Faced with the necessity of moulding an entirely new team from Navy V-12 material, the former Lion distance runner dons his spiked shoes several times a week and goes around the course with his candidates.

Harvey, who captained the Penn State team in 1934, took up where Ray Conger left off several weeks ago and plans to start an all-Navy team against Muhlenberg in the season's opener here on Saturday.

Conger resigned to accept a newly-created post as recreational director at Armstrong Cork, Lancaster, and Harvey immediately stepped into the vacancy. Both men served on the physical education staff.

Brookline Star Hurler Refuses Big Loop Offers

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Voted the most valuable player in the circuit by managers of teams in the Main Line League, George Joseph, sensational Brookline hurler, has offers from six major league ball clubs but won't accept any of them at this time.

Joseph spent four years in the minors, under contract with the Cincinnati Reds and the New York Giants before his arm went bad last year and he decided to give it a rest.

Wins Six Victories

After securing work in a local war plant, Joseph was offered a chance to hurl for the Brookline team. He won six and lost one this year and hopes to pitch his mates to the championship in the playoffs. The youthful twirler—he's 23, single, and has a 4-F classification due to a heart ailment.

Tigers Roar Back Viciously After Two Setbacks; Gribble, Samiac Cross Goal

Defeated in their first two games George Washington high's Tigers roared back viciously yesterday afternoon and clawed Sharon junior high, 20-0, on Washington field.

Gribble was on the scoring end twice while Samiac garnered the other six pointer. Farris and Samiac registered the extra points.

Score In First

The locals manufactured the initial score as the result of a steady drive spearheaded by Gurgiolo and Samiac, plus beautiful to watch blocking by Anderson. Samiac carried over but failed to ring up the extra point.

Early in the second, Washington penetrated to the Sharon 15. Gribble's long dashes and Samiac's effective line cracks pushing the ball close to the goal. Gribble ate up the last 15 yards and Farris plunged over the line for the 13th point.

Alexander's boys were checked in the third but started a drive which resulted in another score by Allison. The play, however, was called back. Gribble then sped 40 yards for the last score and Samiac converted.

Locals Improved

The lineup:

Washington		Sharon
Wynn	L.E.	Jansco

Franklin Spurts To Spill Farrell By 6-0 Margin

Palko's Long Kick Sets Stage; Hill Crosses Goal Line In Fourth

FARRELL, Oct. 8—Powerful Ben Franklin junior high, undefeated for two seasons, was forced to display its Sunday brand of football to squeeze out a 6-0 triumph over a tough Farrell eleven, yesterday afternoon at Farrell.

After three scoreless periods, the Lawrence countians rallied. Johnny Palko was the chief hatchet man as he stepped back on his 20 and lifted a 64-yard kick which went out of bounds on the Farrell 16.

Punt Partially Blocked

On the next play, "Red" Richards slipped through and dropped Pedas for a 14-yard loss. Pedas next tried to punt but the boot was partially blocked by Zappi. The Patriots took over on the 11.

Arthur Hill, speedy fullback, found an opening through the line and torpedoed over for the winning score.

Franklin threatened again, reaching the Farrell 3 in the same period but Hill fumbled and Farrell recovered.

Arthur Hill and "Ducky" Guinaugh led the offense for the Coach Cowmeadow crew with Captain George Williams playing sensationally both on offesne and defense.

Pedas and Halloway starred for the losers.

Franklin Superior

Statistically, Franklin was superior, piling up eight firsts compared to four. The winners gained 146 yards by rushing to 68 for the junior Steelers. Hill marked off 72 in 14 attempts while Guinaugh measured off 56 yards in 11 tries.

The lineup:

Ben Franklin		Farrel
Dean	L.E.	Halloway

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Kirby Higbe, Brooklyn Dodgers hurler, who earned a 1943 record of 13 won and 10 lost, has passed a physical examination for military service. He took the examination at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Fritzie Zivic has agreed to fight Bobby Richardson of Cleveland, a former amateur, in Chicago, October 29. His willingness to box there may result in the Illinois Boxing commission lifting a ban on him placed in June when he failed to go through with a match with Tommy James.

Pennsylvania hunters are asked to turn in deer hides again this year for the manufacture of special corps gloves and arctic shoes. Last year they turned in 8,404 deer skins.

TIME WAS

Only four homers were needed to lead the Cincinnati Reds in that department in 1908. Honus Lobert, now Cincinnati coach, did the trick. He also led the team that year in batting and base stealing.

GOING TO GAME? COME UP EARLY

In view of the fact that more than 10,000 fans are expected to gather for the Farrell-New Castle game here this evening, Ticket Manager Robert Mills today urged spectators to file into the stadium early to eliminate crowding.

"To accommodate all those who desire to see the game, all gates excepting the main gate, will be opened at 6:30 o'clock. The main gate will be opened at 6:45 o'clock. While there are only a few reserved seats left, we still have plenty of general admissions," Mills said.

He also stated that more than 1,000 followers will accompany the Farrell team.

Irish-Michigan Tops Grid Dish

Wolverines Blue, Elroy Hirsch Hurt; Badgers Favored Over Illinois

By JERRY HEALEY
(International News Service Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—With Michigan and Notre Dame battering each other into the Ann Arbor turf tomorrow in what may be the football classic of the year, word came from Minneapolis today to watch out for the Minnesota Gophers.

Remember them—the pigskin powerhouse that used to ride roughshod over Big Ten opposition. The biggest collegiate gridiron aggregation in captivity.

Well, those hefty fellows are still hanging around, as Michigan will find out October 23. They walloped Missouri in their opener and practically annihilated Nebraska last week, 54 to 0. They're idle tomorrow and tackle Camp Grant next week.

Hirsch Out?

But all that portends of things to come. The main dish of the moment is Notre Dame and Michigan, and there was sad news from the camp of the Wolverines. Elroy "Ghost" Hirsch may not be in there for the Wolves when the leather sails into the air at kickoff time.

The former Wisconsin star injured a leg in the Northwestern game, but Trainer Ray Roberts believes there's a chance to get him into condition. Coach Fritz Crisler moans he's not in shape now and is grooming Don Lund for the apparition's left halfback post.

The rest of the Crisler minute men will be shooting from their regular positions; Bill Daley at fullback, Paul White at right half, and Bob Wiese at quarter.

Only one Big Ten Conference game is on tomorrow's program; Ilinois at Wisconsin, and once again the Illini are the underdogs, though not by much.

UEF GALS SHOW BATTING PUNCH; PLAY 21-21 TIE

Seven Homers Smacked In Title Fray; Vera Koach Swats 3 Base Cleaners

If you think the fairer sex can't slap a baseball or softball, brother think again.

Last night on Gaston Park field, the Office and Shop all-stars of the United Engineering and Foundry company staged their title skirmish. The rivals blasted so many hits that darkness descended and the setto was halted with the score tied: 21-21.

Seven Homers

The large crowd was dizzy from watching the rivals circle the bases in merry-go-round fashion. All told, 21 extra base hits were propelled, seven of them homers. Forty-three bingles were counted.

Vera Koach paddled three circuit clouts while Gilbert, Burke, Rudisill and Kegarise smashed out one apiece. Stella Noga rifled a pair of triple and Peifruk, Rudisill and Ulery clubbed one three base swap apiece.

The gals hope to settle the championship dispute next Wednesday night on the same park.

LONE VET

Nebraska has one veteran back from 1942 football. He is Best Gissler, who happens to be six feet seven inches tall, or one inch too much for the army.

Hagan Predicts Tough Skirmish For Pitt Eleven

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Take it from Jim Hagan, Pitt's director of athletics, the Panther-West Virginia grid contest Saturday at Pittsburgh is going to be a close scrap.

"I think the two clubs are going to be evenly matched and you can look for a pretty good game Saturday," said Hagan, who's been looking at football teams since Pitt's "golden twenties".

"This is the kind of a battle generally overlooked when such games as Michigan-Notre Dame, Duke-Navy and others are on tap, but generally winds up as a thriller," he pointed out. "Both teams are looking for their first win of the year, and West Virginia believes the time is ripe to chase the Panther jinx."

Columbus Nears Tiny Series Title

Birds Nip Syracuse, 7-6; A. A. Representative Leads By 3-1 Edge

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 8.—(INS)—The Columbus Red Birds needed but one more victory today to win the junior world series championship.

The Birds took a 3 to 1 lead in the series after handing the Syracuse Chiefs, of the International League, a 7 to 6 defeat last night before 6,721 fans in Red Bird stadium. Ted Wilks and Millard Howell started in the pitching box for the rival clubs. Wilks was replaced in the third frame by Red Barrett after the Chiefs scored four runs. Barrett remained the rest of the game to be credited with the win. Howell was removed in the fifth stanza when the association leaders tied the score, in favor of Casimir Konstanty. Lefty Carter hurled the eighth round for the visitors.

In tonight's game., "Preacher" Roe will hurl for the Columbus team and Tom Delacruz, Cuban hurler, will do mound duty for the visitors.

Titan Flippers Start Practices

Sixteen Candidates Answer Washabaugh's Call; Three Localites On Squad

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 8.—Sixteen towering Titans reported for practice last night at Westminster college after Coach Grover Washabaugh issued his first call for basketball candidates. Included in the group were 11 civilian students and five naval aviation cadets who are stationed on the campus.

Outstanding prospect among the Navy men was Bob Artman, captain of last season's University of Pittsburgh floor quintet. Artman arrived at Westminster with the latest group of cadets from the University of Pennsylvania and will be stationed here for at least three months.

Only one veteran remains of the Titans' squad from last year. He is sophomore Don Bennett, East Liverpool, O., student, who was given a medical discharge from the Army Air Corps.

Ten of the 11 civilian candidates for the team were freshmen. They were: Noble Jorgenson, Pittsburgh; Dave Davis, Greensburg; Fred Paine, Hollidays Cove, W. Va.; Edward Little, Duquesne; Gail Schuler, Warren, Pa.; Eldon Sturrock, Waterford; Henry Vitkovich, Ellwood City; Acky Capetos, Mt. Lebanon, and Jene Wilson and Bill Jarrett, both of New Castle.

Yankees Display Confidence As World Series Carnival Moves On To Sportsman's Park

Foes Resume Play Sunday Afternoon At 2:30 Local Time; Lindell-Johnson Star

RALLY CRUSHES CARDINALS, 6-2

By LAWTON CARVER
INC Sports Editor

EN ROUTE TO ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8.—"We ought to do it in four out of five now....."

That was the sentiment of the re-inspired New York Yankees today as they sped toward St. Louis for resumption of the world series with the Cardinals on Sunday. Out in front two games to one by virtue of Fordham Hank Borowy's 6 to 2 pell mell triumph over Alpha Brazle yesterday afternoon, the Yanks left the stadium for the last time this year looking and sounding somewhat like the Yankees of old in spirits at least.

They don't think the series is over yet. They know by this time that you have to win games before you can count them. And they are cognizant of what this Cardinal club can and might do, but they also figure that the Cards have to catch them now by winning three out of the four or less—to be played at St. Louis. The Yanks need just two triumphs to regain that championship they blew last season, and they figure this edge in wins and the Cards too frequent lack of poise will offset any disadvantages to be found in playing the rest away from home.

May Pitch Russu

They will depend upon Marius Russo, according to present plans, for their third victory. He is Managed Joe McCarthy's tentative choice, with Spud Chandler to come back on Monday for the clincher if it works out that way.

Manager Billy Southworth remained uncertain as to whether he would start Mort Cooper, winner of the Cards' Wednesday victory, or dig down among the others and come up with somebody else, letting Cooper wait until Monday.

The Yanks would like to close this one out at St. Louis by four games to one as the Cardinals wound up last year's by that margin at Yankee stadium. The Yanks look like a club about to play a lot of baseball. They look like they are ready to shoot the works if they can get any kind of pitching at all in their next start.

Yesterday, Alpha Brazle, the thin man from Oklahoma, allowed only three hits going into the eighth, when suddenly the Cards became erratic and the Yanks fell upon Brazle and his successors, Howie Krist adn Harry Brecheen, for five hits and five runs. The gangling, elderly rookie who looked as though he was about to southpaw the Yanks into submission thus was knocked into the showers and the ball game was won and lost.

Commit Four Errors

Brazle was fettered by four errors among his playmates—two costly ones coming in that wild eighth, but he also was banked about by Yankee bats before he got out of there. The big blow, the one that ruined him and the Cards for the afternoon, was a triple by Third Baseman Johnson, hitting hero of the series. This blow to left center brought home Johnny Lindell, who had opened with a single and gone to second on an error by Center Fielder Harry Walker; Snuffy Stirnweiss, who batted for Borowy and got on when Whitey Kurowski made his second boot of the day, and Frankie Crosetti, who had been purposely walked.

The Yankees previously had scored in the sixth, which Borowy opened with a double to come home ultimately on Kurowski's first error. Thus John's blow wiped out a 2 to 1 lead held by the Cards at the time and made it 4 to 2 in favor of the Yankees and weird other things that happened in the eighth had no real bearing on outcome of the encounter.

Cashman Picks Irish To Topple Michigan Eleven

Strings Along With Colgate, Pitt, L. S. U., Texas, Great Lakes, Tartans

By JOHN CASHMAN
International News Service
Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 8—Despite the presence of Coach Lou Little, who can get as much out of a gridiron squad as any mentor in the nation, Columbia seems destined to provide the greatest calamity in the history of football by losing all of its games.

Defensively weak, with a shallow fund of reserves, and carrying nothing into the game except courage, the Lions face a tough schedule and number among their opponents 3 clubs that have already leaped into prominence as eastern powers. Army, Pennsylvania and Navy are the three certain to ride over Columbia, with the remaining enemy forces still formidable in such teams as Yale, Cornell, Dartmouth and Colgate.

Tomorrow Columbia will meet Yale, which is no powerful team, and if the Lions lose that contest you can be pretty sure they will drop the rest.

Strings With Colgate"

The eastern leaders should emerge from tomorrow's contests with their reputations still intact. Army ought to whip Temple with that "T" formation and lightning-quick Glenn Davis. Penn should take the Dartmouth boys after a good struggle, and Holy Cross looks good over Coast Guard. We pick Princeton and Cornell to tie and Navy to whip a highly-touted Duke squad, Pitt is due this time out over West Virginia and Colgate has the edge on Penn State. Rochester is too tough for R. P. I.

In the south, Louisiana State looks mighty good over Texas A. & M. South Carolina should squeeze out a win over Presbyterian and Richmond is a pretty fair bet to take over Virginia, and Georgia Tech over Georgia Navy.

Likes Notre Dame

Carnegie Tech looks good in the west over Case, Marquette over Lawrence, Great Lakes over Ohio State, Iowa Pre-Flight over Iowa, Nebraska over Indiana, Purdue over Camp Grant and Wisconsin over Illinois. But the grandpappy of all the nation's games is, of course, the Notre Dame-Michigan fray. And it's Notre Dame to win by a large margin than the form sheets indicate.

It's Texas over Oklahoma in the southwests' best grid contest, and Rice over Tulane. Tulsa should take the measure of Texas Tech and Oklahoma A. & M. looks good over Arizona Air.

In the far west, it's Southern Cal to ride over St. Mary's Pre-Flight, California to edge out College of the Pacific.

What do football players like to do best out on the field? Well, here are choices of some of Illinois squad members: Tom Fullerton, end, blocking; John Hazelett, end, tackling; Eddie McGovern, back, broken field running; Ralph Palmer, guard, defensive line play; Max Morris, end, defensive play; George Bujan, quarterback, backing the line; Bill Butkovich, fullback, linebucking; Don Greenwood, back, organization of a deceptive offense; Ralph Serpico, guard, blocking; Pete Kearney, tackle, blocking and tackling; John Kane, center, defense.

CRACKS RECORD

U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School, Moraga, Cal.—Cadet Leonard W. Dewhirst of Beverly, Kan., cracked the record for the two-mile lake run at St. Mary's Pre-Flight the other day.

SPORT CAPSULES

WINK IS OUT

Jack Wink, former Wisconsin football star, may not play much for Michigan, where he is a navy trainee, due to an old leg injury.

PETTY TO CORNELL

Navy Ensign John Petty, who has been helping the Penn State football staff during his stay at the Nittany institution, has been shipped to Cornell. Petty, a Lebanon boy, played at Purdue before joining the Chicago Bears last fall.

SAME TRADE

Gene Bossard, Comiskey Park groundskeeper, is at the same old trade even though h enow sports a Navy uniform. He's the new groundskeeper at the Great Lakes Training Station. And that's official.

Here's Play That Ruined Cardinals

Cardinals went on the skids with this play in the eighth inning of the third world series contest in New York. Centerfielder Johnny Lindell of the Yankees is pictured hurtling into third, where Whitey Kurowski is waiting with the ball. When Lindell slid in, Kurowski dropped the ball for the second successive St. Louis Error and the Yankees were started on a five-run rally that gave them the game, 6 to 2, and an edge in the series.

Grid Tidbits

(International News Service)

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 8.—An injured shoulder will keep Walt Schwartz, Navy right tackle, out of tomorrow's game with Duke's Blue Devils. Schwartz had replaced Ed. Elliott after the latter sprained his right knee in practice before the season opened.

PHILADELPHIA—Penn will use the same lineup that whipped Yale, 41-7, when the Quakers seek their third straight conquest against an undefeated Dartmouth eleven at Franklin Field Saturday. Coach George Munger broke precedent yesterday by sending his charges through a 10-minute scrimmage.

PHILADELPHIA. — Thirty-three Owls leave the Quaker City today for West Point where Temple tangles with Army Saturday for the first time in gridiron history. Sid Roche, frosh star and Temple high scorer, may not see action due to a leg injury.

COLUMBUS, O.—An Ohio State squad of 36 players was named to make the trip to Great Lakes, Ill., today for a light workout before meeting the Bluejackets. The Buckeyes were reported in excellent condition.

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—Notre Dame's fighting Irish took a light drill today before leaving for Jackson, Mich., where they will be quartered for the night and then leave for Ann Arbor to engage the Michigan Wolverines. A squad of 36 players was named by Coach Frank Leahy to make the trip.

The Irish finished their heavy drills yesterday with a brief dummy scrimmage following a long practice on offense with Johnny Lujack and Angelo Bertelli polishing off their aerial plays.

CAMP GRANT, Ill.—Camp Grant's football hopes for a victory over Purdue suffered a severe blow today. Bob Orlando, star right guard and place kicker for the Warriors and an all-Eastern guard at Colgate last season, said he had given up football because of parental objection.

KEEPS CARDS

Ralph Kennedy, golfer, keeps cards of rounds played away from his home course. He has 2330 of them. He has played on almost half the courses in the United States.

SMALL GAINS IN MARKET PRICES

Some Recovery Noted After Four-Day Decline On Treasury Proposals

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Stock prices recovered slightly today after their four-day decline on the treasury's tax proposals. Gains ran to around a point with air transports making the best showing.

Trading slowed down. American Air Lines, up 2 points at one time, was a leader in the air transport group. United Air Lines and Pan-American Airways made more modest gains.

Amusements were higher with Loews up a point at one time. Rails advanced fractionally as did steels, rubbers, utilities, and motors.

Wilson & Co. common was up fractions.

The rest of the list held within small fractions of last night's close. Western Union Class A, the new stock created in the postal merger, was admitted to dealings. Ticker symbol for the company's securities was changed from "W" to "WU".

Ellwood Council Completes Plans For Selling Bonds

Indebtedness To Be Increased $58,000 For Repair Of Sewage Disposal Plant

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—For the purpose of repairing, enlarging and equipping the sewage disposal plant and intercepting sewer, the Ellwood boro council, in regular session last night, completed arrangements for the sale of bonds in the amount of $58,000. The bonds will be advertised at once, and awarded at a special meeting to be held on Thursday night, October 28.

Work on the plant was started several days ago. Approval for increasing the bonded indebtedness of the city for the purpose of building a new disposal plant was given by a majority vote of the electorate in 1942.

Voters approved floating of a bond issue to the amount of $119,000; however, because of priorities and shortages caused by war the present plant is being repaired, enlarged and equipped. The entire project will cost approximately $97,000, with $39,000 of the amount to be a federal grant. The total bonded indebtedness will now be $169,000.

Subject to approval by the school district, council accepted a compromise on the direct tax assessment of the Walnut Ridge government housing project.

The assessment now offered by the government to council, pending action by the school board, is $111,994.

The project was assessed by the Fifth ward assessor at $118,000, and the government assessed the project at $82,000, stating that the project was not assessed in proportion to other assessed valuations of the boro. Council and the school district protested the $82 000 valuation, and the government has now offered the $111,994 compromise.

John W. Offutt was re-appointed as a member of the General Authority for a five-year term.

Council agreed on a $75 minimum charge for any call for service by the fire department outside the boro limits. Total damage for fire for the month of September was listed at $15. The new aerial ladder truck will be delivered during the last week of October it was reported.

Total fines, costs and forfeits were listed at $152 for September.

An offer presented by Nelson Runyan for the purchase of nine boro-owned lots on Lawrence avenue, between 10th and 11th streets, at $300 each was received but no action taken. Bids for the property will be advertised.

An ordinance calling for the flattening and sanitary preparation of tin cans for the garbage collection was presented for second reading but tabled until council meets as a committee on Thursday, October 22, for informal discussion of a number of things.

Mrs. H. O. Smiley will be paid $65 for damages resulting in the pavement of Wampum avenue in 1929. The claim has been held up for a long time pending action.

GROUP THREE MAKES WHITE CROSS BANDAGES

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Group Three of the Baptist church met for dinner at noon on Thursday. Devotions were led by Mrs. William Crowley, Miss Lylia Hazen and Miss Sallee Hazen.

The group made bandages for the White Cross with Mrs. Martha Richards in charge.

Miss Clara Marsano Weds Robert Ross

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. William Marsano of Wampum avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Clara Marie Marsano, to Pvt. Robert Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ross of Smiley street.

The ceremony was performed on Saturday, September 25, at Camp McCoy, Wis., by Rev. Burton Warrine. The attractive bride wore an aqua suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stevenson of this city were their only attendants. A wedding dinner followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Ross is a graduate of the Ellwood High school with the January class of '43 and has been employed by the G. C. Murphy company. Private Ross is also a graduate of the local high school and before induction was employed by the Runyan company.

For the present Mrs. Ross is residing near Camp McCoy.

Request Speed-Up In Applications For 'A' Gas Books

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8—To forstall a last minute rush, Chairman Powell of Ellwood City Board, urges automobile owners to apply immediately for renewal of the "A" gasoline ration. Applications can be had at the various garages and employees of the various industries should contact Transportation Committees who have applications.

Applications for the new "A" books, it is necessary for applicant to fill out all necessary information properly and attach tire inspection record and the back cover of old "A" book to the application form.

Applications not properly filled out will have to be returned to applicant for correction. This will cause much unnecessary work and delay.

Pioneer Officers Arrange Events

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—The executive committee of the Pioneer Society of the First U. P. church gathered last night at the home of their counsellor, Miss Bessie Burrows, Fountain avenue.

The group wrote individual notes to Lt. Alta Lee Battersby stationed with a WAC unit in Texas.

At the Sunday evening meeting, Miss Alice Shirley will review the book, "The Robe". Plans were made to have a Hallowe'en party at the church on October 29 with Virginia Clark in charge. Five dollars was voted to the McClanahan fund.

Members will attend the convention on Saturday at the Highland church, New Castle. Miss Lois Brodbeck heads the membership contest to begin on Sunday, October 17.

During the social hour, the group addressed envelopes to servicemen which will be used for the mailing of church news. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Tri-Hi-Y Girls Have Initiation

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Tri-Hi-Y Girls of Ellwood City high school held initiation for 23 new members in Ewing Park Thursday evening. The event was in the form of a box social with senior members as hostesses.

Initiates created much amusement at the school today with their unusual costumes, the wearing of these having been prescribed by upper-classmen.

Initiation closes tonight when the new members will be compelled to scrub the football bleachers with tooth brushes.

WILLING WORKERS CLASS HAS MEETING

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Clair Kirker, of Wurtemburg, was a pleasing hostess to members of the Willing Workers class of the Wurtemburg Methodist church, evening.

Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Wilbur Durnell and Mrs. LeMayne French.

At a later hour the group enjoyed a dainty lunch, served by Mrs. Elmer Hazen and Betty Kirker.

PYTHIAN SISTERS

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—A ten dollar contribution to the United War fund was voted by the Pythian Sisters lodge at the meeting last night at the bank hall. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sadie Kennedy and committee after which members departed to meet in two weeks.

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Articles on fire prevention were read at the Pleasant Hill grange meeting last night after which Mrs. Harry Fury sang a solo and the juvenile grange directed by Mrs. Benton Elliott presented a play, "Manners".

A wiener roast will feature the next meeting on Thursday, October 21.

THURSDAY NIGHT SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Many Enjoyable Club Meetings Take Place In Various Homes In Community

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Among the enjoyable club meetings of Thursday night were:

Meetemall Club

Mrs. Lloyd Badger opened her home on Hazel avenue to Meetemall club members.

Attractive prizes went to Mrs. Ray Reck, Mrs. Fred Kasch and Mrs. Edward Minett. Miss Alma McClellan was a special guest and Mrs. Ralph Koach was given a lovely gift.

Mrs. James Cable will entertain the club in two weeks at her home, Zelienople road.

Bide A Wee Club

Mrs. Walter Tritt and Mrs. William Frazier were special guests of the Bide A Wee club at the home of Mrs. Richard Means, Ellport.

The high awards in cards went to Mrs. John Spielhaupter and Mrs. Charles Hertzog. The hostess served appetizing refreshments.

D. B. Club

Contract played at two tables occupied members of the D. B. club at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Gunnett, Rolling Hills.

Prize honors went to Mrs. Gunnett and Mrs. Phillip Cole. Mrs. Frank McCarthy was a guest.

Thursday, October 21, the club meets with Mrs. Clifford Johnston, Haig street.

D. D. Club

The Ellport home of Mrs. James Cogley was the meeting place for D. D. club members with Mrs. Lewis Ippolito being a guest.

Mrs. Henry Stoner, Mrs. James Morrison and Mrs. Howard Fleeger won the 500 prizes. Mrs. Fleeger aided in serving tasty refreshments.

Eagles Auxiliary

Winners were Mrs. Richard Selfridge, Miss Jessie Young, for bingo; Mrs. Grace Pander, Mrs. Jane Price, Henry Seetch and Crawford Anderson, for 500; and Paul Duffy and Carl Keul for 66. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Mackey, Mrs. Clarence Blair, Mrs. Roy Welsh, Mrs. Selfridge, Mrs. Richard Blank, Mrs. Pander and Mrs. Emma Conner.

Hungarian Women

A $5 contribution to the United War fund was voted by the Hungarian Women's Club at the regular meeting.

Games followed with the awards going to Mrs. Joseph Mraz and Mrs. John Mondell. Mrs. John Chontos and committee served appealing refreshments honoring the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Alex Pavlin, Mrs. Lewis Demeter and Mrs. Louis Farkas. In charge of the next meeting, will be Mrs. John Bokar and committee.

TEN PIN LEAGUE STANDING TIED

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—The Ellwood City Forge company took two out of three games from the National Tube team last night to throw the local Industrial Ten Pin league into a first place tie between the National Tube No. 2 team and the Ellwood City Forge company. In other matches last night National Tube No. 1 took three straight from the United Tube company and the Aetna-Standard copped three straight from the Ellwood company.

Evening's high single game score honors went to Joe Massina, of the National Tube No. 2 team, who bowled a league single game score record of 246. High team single game in last night's matches went to National Tube No. 2 with 875 as did the high team three game totals when the aggregate score of the National Tube No. 2 team was 2,528.

Standings are as follows:

	W.	L.
National Tube, No. 2	9	3
Ellwood City Forge	9	3
National Tube No. 1	8	4
Aetna-Standard	7	5
United Tube	3	9
Ellwood Company	0	12

Wiley Hill Honor Roll Dedication On Sunday Afternoon

Burgess Clyde B. Houk To Give Main Address At Ceremony Honoring Eighty

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—On Sunday afternoon at two o'clock with a special program, an honor roll will be unveiled at Wiley Hill honoring the service men and women of the community. The tablet is erected on the Joseph Wiley property on the Ellwood-New Brighton road.

Paul MacMurdo, who was largely responsible for securing funds for the honor roll, will make the presentation. Pvt. Glenn Wiley, a Wiley Hill soldier home on furlough, will accept the tablet.

Eighty names have been inscribed on the board, which is designed to contain 150 names. It is of modernistic design, topped with a large eagle and flanked with red, white and blue panels.

R. J. Schill will serve as master-of ceremonies, and the program will include:

Invocation, Rev. J. E. Pringle, of the Bell Memorial church; dedicatory address, Burgess Clyde B. Houk; remarks, Joseph Clark, labor-management representative of the National Tube company, and selections by a quartet composed of Paul Conner, William Boyer, Richard Wilson and F. D. Powell.

MONACA TO PLAY ELLWOOD TONIGHT

Wolverines Return To Home Field For Grid Contest With Valley Team

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—After three out-of-town jaunts, the Ellwood High school football team returns tonight to their home field for the sixth game of the year with Monaca High school team to provide the opposition. The game is slated to begin at 8 o'clock, which is an advance of 15 minutes over the previous starting time.

With no outstanding lettermen back from last year, Monaca has no leading player this year, according to Coach Thurman F. Croft. Their team averages about 150 pounds.

Monaca, which has always been one of Ellwood's toughest rivals, has had a luckless season, losing to Beaver, Ambridge, Beaver Falls, New Brighton and Midland. Their only touchdown of the season was last week against Beaver. Lou Blistan is Monaca's coach.

Last year the Indians held Ellwood to a 7-6 score, and the previous year Ellwood won by an 18-7 count.

Croft plans to use the same starting lineup tonight. Last week, Ellwood clicked well against Butler gaining finesse with the modified version of the T formation used this year. Much improvement was shown in the Wolverine's blocking last week, Croft pointed out.

Officiating at tonight's game will be French, umpire; McClure, referee; and Richards, headlinesman.

Army-Navy Test To Be Given Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—A qualifying test for the Army specialized training program and the Navy college program, V-12, will be given at the Ellwood City high school on Tuesday, November 9, at 9 o'clock. High school principal, Ralph Shaffer and R. J. Hawks, faculty member, will give the test.

Applications may be secured now at the principal's office.

The test is for boys who will be between the ages of 17 and 21 by March 1, 1944. Students who will graduate in May and June are not eligible for this test.

Any one who took the same test last April and who are still eligible may take the test again.

YWCA Council Party For Girls

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Y. W. C. A. Council had its first party for teen-age girls in the Fourth Ward Thursday evening at Northside school with 25 girls in attendance.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ray Gillespie, Mrs. Floyd Cogley, Mrs. Leroy Maxwell, Mrs. William Brenner, Mrs. Walter Blatschford and Mrs. James Casey.

These parties are to be held every Thursday at Northside school for all girls of the community. Election of officers will take place next week.

Mrs. Mary Baier Funeral Is Held

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Funeral services for the late Mrs. Mary Baier, who died on Monday after a long illness, was conducted Thursday afternoon from the St. Paul's Lutheran church, with Rev. Ludwig Beisecker in charge.

Pallbearers were: George Hahn, George Paul, Steven Homner, Martin Segedi, George Paul and George Kuttesch.

Interment followed in the Locust Grove cemetery. Attending the funeral were relatives and friends from Youngstown, New Castle and Monaca.

The deceased is survived by four daughters, Katherine Umling, Mrs. Mary Paul, Mrs. Ann Zabo and Mrs. Sarah Salmen, the latter of N. C., and two sons, John and Michael Baier, this city. She also leaves twenty grandchildren.

U. P. SOCIETY MEMBERS MEET

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Twenty members of the Women's Missionary society gathered last night at the First U. P. church.

Mrs. W. E. Minteer led devotions and the topic, "The Remaking Of A Nation," was presented by Mrs. Donald McCowan. Mrs. Lawrence Barnhart reviewed the convention held yesterday at the College Hill church.

Plans were made to send additional canned fruits and vegetables to the home at Wilkinsburg.

Tea and cookies served by Mrs. Russell Anderson and Mrs. A. H. Gardner concluded the evening.

ATTEND PRESBYTERIAL

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Mrs. J. E. Caughey, Mrs. Irvin Dolter, Mrs. Harry Fury, Mrs. R. H. Kirk, Mrs. W. L. Timblin and Mrs. C. J. Gibbons of the Wurtemburg U. P. church attended the fall rally of the Beaver Valley Presbyterial Thursday at the College Hill church.

Representing the Ellwood church were: Mrs. L. E. Springer, Mrs. W. E. Minteer, Mrs. Russell Anderson, Mrs. J. P. Moyer, Mrs. Anna Wilson, Mary Jane McKnight, Ruth King, Margaret Burton, Mrs. A. H. Gardner, Mrs. William Warnock, Mrs. Margaret Kennedy, Mrs. Thomas Patterson, Mrs. Don McCowan, Mrs. Joseph Kaiser, Mrs. George Burrows and Mrs. James Patterson.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Discharged: Mrs. J. Walter Etter, Route 1, Harmony, and Mrs. Valdora McKinney, Route 2.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Miller, Route 1, Harmony, a daughter, on Thursday.

Mrs. Wharton was brought to the hospital Thursday for treatment for a badly lacerated upper arm. Mrs. Wharton was injured when she was thrown from the mowing machine into the cutting bar.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DINNER

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—This evening at 6:15 o'clock in the Presbyterian church, there will be a dinner to honor all Sunday school members with perfect attendance records for the past year. Rev. H. M. Patton, pastor of the Christian church, will be the speaker. Women of the Presbyterian church will serve the dinner.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Murton, of Beaver Falls, announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Anne, at the Providence hospital, Beaver Falls. Mrs. Murton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Gallaher, of Ellport.

ELLWOOD W. C. T. U.

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 8.—Tonight at eight o'clock the Ellwood City W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. A. H. Gardner, Brighton road. A miscellaneous auction will be held.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

Mrs. Gladys Baer is confined to her home, Old Pittsburgh road, by illness.

William Hollencamp, who resided with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reinheimer Orchard avenue, before entering the Navy four months ago, has been advanced to the rank of petty officer third class. He is stationed at Oakland, Calif.

Mrs. Christain McEvilla, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Lillian Brown, of Beaver Falls; Mrs. Mollie Smith, of Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Florence Bingham, of New Brighton, were dinner guests this week at the home of Mrs. R. H. Kirk, Wurtemburg.

Mrs. Tillie Fowler will return to her home at Wurtemburg on Saturday from Warren, O., where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Evans.

Dr. Meachem, former New Castle resident, is seriously ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Paul Reynolds, Beechwood boulevard.

MARINE RESCUES WOMAN

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 8.—(INS)—A marine home on leave today aided in the rescue of Mrs. Agnes Nye, 44, of Altoona, who fell into the later at Lakemont Park.

Marine Robert Leonard was among several persons who saw the woman plunge, and helped to pull her to safety. Altoona hospital attaches report she is recovering.

Two centuries ago, only one child in every four born in London lived to the age of 5. Nearly nine out of every ten reach that age now.

It has been found that more than 10,000,000 persons are treated annually in the hospitals of the United States.

JAPS ATTEMPT RAID ON YANKS' BASE IN CHINA

CHUNGKING, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Destruction of at least two, and probably three, Japanese warplanes during the unsuccessful raid on an advanced United States air base in China was credited today to American fighter pilots who beat off the attackers.

A communique issued by Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stillwell, commanding general of the American forces in the India-China-Burma theater, announced that a large formation of Jap bombers and fighters was intercepted by American pilots last Wednesday as they headed for a United States base in Kiangsi province. It was the third straight day that American pilots turned back enemy attackers.

At least one enemy bomber and one fighter were shot down and another bomber listed as probable. The attempted Japanese assault came 24 hours after American Mitchell bombers had damaged storage buildings and iron foundry installations at nearby Shih Hwei Yao. No planes were lost in either operation.

(Reuter's news agency in London quoted DNB, the Nazi propaganda outlet, as reporting from Tokyo that 300 American bombers raided Haipong yesterday. Four of the bombers were said to have been shot down. There was no immediate confirmation of this Axis report.)

Lend-Lease Policy Changes Reported

Attitude Toward Latin America Is Altering; Offensive Aid Wanted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Reports were current in diplomatic circles in Washington today that an important change in American lend-lease policy toward Latin America is taking place.

The American government is said to be taking the position that all future lend-lease aid to the Latin American republics must be based chiefly on offensive rather than defensive military considerations.

In other words, those Latin American republics which are preparing to assist either with men or materials the United Nations growing offensive against the Axis powers will receive priority on lend-lease aid.

Extension of lend-lease aid to Latin America for purely defensive purposes is reportedly being curtailed because the United States government believes the danger of direct attack on the western hemisphere has been greatly reduced by the favorable turn of events on the fighting fronts.

Two important diplomatic moves taken by President-General Pedro Ramirez were seen as stiffening the Argentine military government's stand against closer cooperation with the United Nations.

One move was the recall of Don Felipe Espil, who has been Argentine ambassador to the United States for the past 12 years. Espil, who has been noted for friendship toward America, was replaced by Adrian Escobar, former Ambassador to Brazil.

The other questionable move by the Argentine government is the appointment of Enrique Ruiz Guinazu, a pro-Nazi as new ambassador to Spain.

These two diplomatic moves are considered a definite indication of the Argentine's determination to void a break with the Axis powers and to remain neutral in the war.

Thirteen Men Are Sentenced

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 8—(INS)—Federal Judge R. M. Gibson today sentenced 13 men for violating the selective service act and for other offenses.

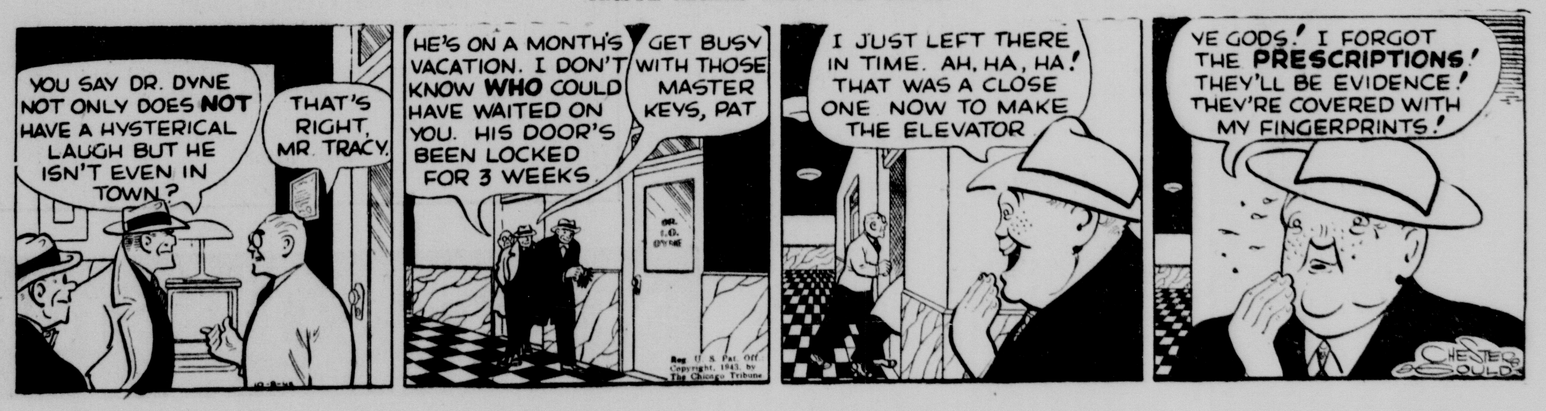

Sentenced for failure to report changes of address to local boards were: Leon Henry, Harrisburg, two years; Logan Anthony Speelman, Pittsburgh, a year and a day; John Joseph McGrew, alias John Steinbrunn, Philadelphia, a year and a day; Earl Smith Leach, Wilmerding, Pa., a year and a day; and John Willie Byrd, Monesse, Pa., two and one half years.

Sentenced for failing to register for selective service were: Willie James Stubbs, Pittsburgh, six months in jail.

Sentenced for receiving narcotic drugs: Yee Wing Chew, Pittsburgh, six months in jail; for stealing a street letter box and opening letters; David Johnson, Pittsburgh, 18 months, for transporting a stolen motor vehicle, Scarlett Daniel O'Rourke, Covington, Ky., two years; for theft of United States property, George Charles Knapp, Port Allgheny, Pa., and Ralph Wilbur Rucker, Dubois, Pa., each a year and a day.

Robert H. Halstead, 25, of Fairmont W. Va. for impersonating a naval petty officer got two and one-half years; and Frank Barker, of Monaca, Pa., father of three, was sentenced to a year and a day for impersonating an FBI agent.
